Victoria's Budget May Be Cut to Fit Fixed Income

Detailed Reports on What 41-mill Rate Would Produce in Revenue, and Make Possible in Work, to be Laid Before Mayor and Council To-night; Requirements of Growing City Not Easy to Satisfy Without Increased Cost.

Reports by D. A. Macdonald, City Comptroller, as to the income the city would receive this year with a mill rate of 41 mills on the dollar, and estimated receipts of $959,866 from other sources, and reports from departmental heads as to how they would apportion the share of the money that would be allotted to their departments, will be laid before the City Council to-night.

At its last meeting the City Council adopted the 41 mill rate plan, as a basis on which to found budget appropriations, provisionally at any rate. By accepting the suggestion of Mayor Herbert Anscomb, the council voted to receive reports this evening from all city officials concerned, and to take final action on the budget by February 28.

TO KEEP WITHIN SHARE

During the week the Mayor's budget plan has gained considerable support, both as to the fixing of the income the city will require for its operation this year, and also as to the sufficiency of that income. Coupled with the budget plan is the understanding that all city departments would be expected to live rigorously within their share of the appropriations.

The details of how the scheme would work out in practice will probably be laid before the City Council this evening, in the reports of departmental heads. Two major changes are included in the plan, being the suggested creation of reserves for the future replacement of depreciating equipment in the fire prevention, police and public works, departments, and the financing of major street development through money by-laws on a vote of the people.

AGREEMENT TO AID TRADE

Increased Ship Services Between Canada and Newfoundland Planned

Toronto, Feb. 18. — Newfoundland and Canada have reached an agreement on policy in regard to a revision of their trade arrangement, postal service and better steamship facilities. The Toronto Mail and Empire quotes Sir Richard Squires, Premier of Newfoundland, as stating in an interview at Montreal.

A general policy of co-operation, making for mutually advantageous industrial and commercial advancement of both countries, was agreed upon by the principal s at the recent negotiations, The Mail and Empire quotes him as saying.

"The policy includes provisions to improve letter mail, parcel post and freight transprotation facilities and certain trade arrangements which will necessitate a revision of the Newfoundland tariff in some particulars, he said.

Sir Richard had a number of conferences with Premier King and other Cabinet Ministers in Ottawa recently.

The Mail and Empire report of the interview adds:

"Some time must elapse before the details of the understanding can be worked out and assembled for a final revision satisfactory to both sides.

"Careful investigation is to be made by both Governments of the statistics and fact generally bearing on the past and existing relationships, not only between Canada and Newfoundland, but between them and other parts of the Empire and foreign countries.

CONFUSION ENDED

"Pending the completion of an entirely new trade arrangement, however," Sir Richard added, "the confusion created a year ago has been clarified by the application to the situation of Newfoundland acts of Parliament passed in 1928 and the carrying out of Newfoundland orders-in-council in so far, but only in so far, as they are authorized or confirmed by that act.

"This means that to-day Canada has the same preferential treatment as Spain or Greece, to which countries Newfoundland sells large quantities of fish, but not the benefit of the special Newfoundland-Jamaica treaty.

COUNTRIES' TRADE

"Newfoundland buys more than $12,000,000 worth of goods annually from Canada for cash, while Canada buys for cash from Newfoundland less than $500,000 worth of merchandise and produce. My attitude is that I want Canada to hold that export trade and increase it, but if Canada does not want the business there are other countries that do."

E.L. Doheny Jr. Killer's Victim In Los Angeles

Oil Magnate's Millionaire Son's Secretary Commits Suicide After Crime

Mentally Deranged Man's Last Deeds Which Stir California Are Investigated

Los Angeles, Feb. 18—Investigation of the murder of Edward L. Doheny Jr., millionaire son of Edward L. Doheny, oil magnate, who became so widely known during the Teapot Dome naval oil lease inquiry, had revealed to-day a picture of a life and death struggle with a crazed man, his secretary, friend and murderer, Hugh Plunkett. The slayer committed suicide when he found himself trapped in young Doheny's Beverly Hills home, "Greystone," where indications of a desperate struggle Saturday night were built into a scene of an untold tragic drama.

Since Plunkett's wife obtained an uncontested divorce last October, investigators of the district attorney's office said, young Doheny's confidential secretary had shown a nervous ailment which had become serious. Dr. E. C. Fishbaugh, the Doheny family physician for ten years, at the request of the thirty-six-year-old heir of the Doheny oil millions, had attended Plunkett. Saturday afternoon, a few hours before the double tragedy, a family conference had been held over Plunkett's condition. The conferees attempted to induce Plunkett, who was living at "Greystone," to go to a santarium for rest and treatment, which he refused to do.

MONOPLANE ROMA MAY BE FLOWN AT LAST

It looks as if the Bellanca monoplane Roma, which has been groomed for several important flights that were not started, may leave the ground at last. Diego Arzeno, left, Argentine commercial pilot, and Lieut. Claudio A. Mejia, head of an Argentine pursuit squadron, pictured here in the cockpit of the plane at Newcastle, Pa., are preparing for a hop to Buenos Ayres. From there they hope to try an eastward hop over the South Atlantic to Seville, Spain. They intend to pick up a navigator and mechanic in Buenos Ayres.

Lieutenant-Governor Opens First Annual Winter Golf Tourney

Good Entry List in Men's and Ladies' Qualifying Rounds of Empress Hotel Handicap Tournament; Players Competing From Vancouver, Seattle, Saskatoon and Winnipeg; E. D. Todd Leads Early Scorers in Men's Event With Net 71.

Victoria's first Midwinter golf tournament, being staged under the auspices of the Canadian Pacific Railway, got away to a fine start this morning at the Victoria Golf Club, with players from Vancouver, Seattle, Saskatoon and Winnipeg, besides a large local contingent, competing. Thirty-eight men are taking part, while twenty lady players are entered.

The tournament was officially opened by Lieutenant-Governor R. Randolph Bruce. His Honor set a fine example for the competitors by cracking a splendid drive down the centre of the first fairway.

TREACHEROUS COURSE

The men teed off this morning in the eighteen-hole handicap qualifying round. The thirty-two players with the lowest scores will qualify. The players found the course in fair shape, after last night's frost. The greens were exceptionally fast for approach shots and slow for putts. The hard ground also aided the carry on shots from the tees.

H. P. Johnson led the early scorers. He had a gross score of 79, which his handicap of 12 reduced to 67. J. H. (Mickey) Richardson, Colwood captain, was well up with a gross score of 84, which his handicap of 10 gave him a net of 74. John Savident of Uplands and Joe Lee of Colwood were tied with the net scores of 75.

H. A. Lineham of Colwood took a 86 this morning, which his handicap of 3 reduced to 83. C. Blackstock of Seattle had a gross 87 and a net 80.

400 Arrests Are Made In Chicago

But No Gangster Yet Taken on Charge of Killing Seven

The state attorney's office expressed itself to-day as satisfied that the "Purple Gang" of Detroit had no important part in last Thursday's slayings here. At the same time investigators were given further testimony that two of the slayers were dressed as policemen.

There was a discouraging lack of definite progress reported both by the police and by the state attorney. In the four days since the seven men of the George "Bugs" Moran gang were lined against a brick wall and murdered there has been no arrest of a single suspect, it was pointed out by David Stansbury, in charge of the investigation.

About 400 arrests were made in week-end raids, but no "big guns" of the gang register were among those taken.

Trotzky Ill in Constantinople

Constantinople, Feb. 18.—Far from having been removed to Angora, Leon Trotzky lies so ill in the Russian consulate here that to move him at all would be dangerous, it is believed. His wife and the four Soviet guards who brought the two here from Alma-Ata in Russian Turkestan, his former place of exile, attend his wants and act as nurses.

It is said that until he improves there is no possibility of moving him to Angora or any other place.

ROADS BLOCKED BY SNOW, SO PLANE IS USED TO SAVE LIVES

Edmonton, Feb. 18.—Capt. "Wop" May and his Commercial Airways plane again were pressed into service for the saving of human life Saturday when the hero of the Fort Vermilion "mercy flight" carried anti-toxin to a diphtheria-stricken family at Manola, twenty miles southwest of Westlock and seventy-five miles by road from Edmonton.

SNOW BLOCKS ROADS

Cut off by snow-blocked roads from the nearest source of help, Mrs. E. R. Redlin, the wife, and Keith, the four-year-old son of a Manola farmer, had died of the disease and the widower and two surviving children, six and three years old, respectively, were near death when a neighbor called at the home Friday night. A message was sent by telephone to Dr. A. M. Crawford of Westlock, who asked aid of the Alberta Department of Health at Edmonton, this resulting in the securing of 200,000 units of diphtheria anti-toxin and the sending of it to the stricken household by aeroplane.

Despite a head wind, the Lockheed-Vega plane, owned by Capt. May and Lieut. Horner, made the fifty-mile trip to Westlock with a trained nurse in thirty minutes. There Dr. Crawford was picked up and the plane flew to the Redlin farm, and the lives of Mr. Redlin and his two children are believed to have been saved.

RETURN TRIP

With the wind on its tail, the plane was piloted over the fifty miles from Westlock to Edmonton in sixteen minutes, carrying as passengers three businessmen who had been marooned in Westlock by impassable roads.

CONSCIENCE MAKES BURGLAR RETURN VANCOUVER LOOT

Vancouver, Feb. 18—Apparently conscience-stricken, a burglar who on February 11 stole a number of pieces of jewelry from the home of H. C. Newlands on West Eighth Street here, returned his loot to the owner yesterday.

Mr. Newlands was called to the door of his home Sunday by a messenger boy, who handed him a parcel. Opening it, he found the ewelry which had been stolen from his home six days before.

Son of Local Man Killed In Accident

When Car Drops Off Wharf at Mission City, C. A. Stewart Loses Life

Son of Inspector A. C. Stewart, Department of Education, Here

Carol A. Stewart, principal of the Abbotsford, B.C. public school and a son of Inspector A. C. Stewart of the Department of Education, who lives in Victoria, was killed at Mission City Saturday night when the car in which he was riding plunged off the Government wharf there, according to a telegraphic dispatch.

Mr. Stewart is survived by a young wife and two-week-old daughter, who are now in this city. He is a native son of Vancouver and was about thirty-five years of age, having been in charge of the Abbotsford school for the last eighteen months.

Mrs. E. West, and her daughter, Mrs. M. Robinson, were injured in the same accident, which occurred Saturday night.

CAR SOMERSAULTS

A Vancouver dispatch states the car somersaulted and landed, bottom up, on the ice of the Fraser River, pinning the occupants, including the car owner and driver, F. B. Steeves, accountant of the Royal Bank branch at Abbotsford, underneath. The accident happened when the car occupants were on their way home after attending a picture show. On reaching the sharp turn at the foot of Horne Avenue, the car, instead of rounding the curve, ran on to the wharf and dropped eight feet to the ice.

A towboat man, Charles Merchant, who was sleeping in his gasboat, which was frozen in at the other end of the wharf, heard the crash, but at first he though it was only the noise of the ice, which was constantly cracking and pounding at that point. However, he soon realized a tragedy had occurred, as somehow in the crash the wires of the horn of the car had become short-circuited and it sounded. This soon brought rescuers to the scene.

CABINET ASKS HOUSE LEAD

Manitoba Legislature Consulted on Acceptance of Two Ministers' Resignation

Winnipeg, Feb. 18 — Hon. W. J. Major has offered his resignation as Attorney-General of Manitoba. This was announced in the Legislature this afternoon by Premier Bracken.

Mr. Major, who holds one of the Winnipeg seats, has been a member of the Cabinet since April 29, 1927.

The resignation of Hon. W. R. Clubb, Minister of Public Works in the Bracken Government, was handed in last Friday.

Mr. Bracken intimated that neither of the resignations had been accepted by the Government and stated the Government had decided to make a statement on the case and ascertain the views of the House.

PURCHASES OF STOCK

Both resignations were the outcome of purchases of Winnipeg Electric Company stock by the Cabinet Ministers at a time when the lease of the Seven Sisters Falls power site of the company was being consummated by the Government. It was announced in the Legislature to-day that Mr. Major had purchased fifty shares, held them for a week and then sold them.

CHARGES NOT WITHDRAWN

Winnipeg, Feb. 18—Colonel Arthur Sullivan, counsel for Lieut.-Colonel F. G. Taylor, Manitoba Conservative leader, at the royal commission investigation of campaign fund charges against the Bracken Government, declared at this afternoon's sitting of the commission that he had received instructions from Colonel Taylor that the latter "had not on any occasion, at any time, withdrawn his charges against the Government."

ANOTHER COLD SNAP IS NOT EXPECTED NOW

Snow Flurry To-day, But Prediction Is For Milder Weather

Despite a light flurry of snow here about noon to-day, predictions of the weatherman are for continued milder weather.

F. Napier Denison, superintendent of the Dominion Meteorological Observatory at Gonzales Heights, said it was not likely there would be a recurrence of the cold snap from which the city had just recovered. Temperatures were fairly high all along the coast, he pointed out, while in the Yukon, from which direction the last cold wave came, it was comparatively mild.

On Gonzales Heights the mercury was up to thirty-six degrees at noon, although it reached as low as twenty-nine degrees, three degrees of forst, at an early hour this morning.

The prairies are, however, experiencing unusually low temperatures again, Mr. Denison said, the mercury hovering around thirty and forty degrees below in various places.

Ask Vote On Whole Future of Liquor In This Province

A referendum on the broad question of preventing the total importation of liquor into British Columbia and its manufacture here was the chief proposal laid before the Cabinet to-day by a large delegation from the B.C. Prohibition Association.

Four other requests were advanced as follows:

1. Inauguration of scientific instruction in temperance in the public school curriculum.
2. Elimination of all liquor advertising.
3. Abolition of the present system by which liquor profits are ear-marked for municipalities, thus making them dependent on the liquor business.
4. A referendum in Greater Vancouver on the continuance of beer parlors.

VOTE URGED

Rev. R. J. McIntyre, organizer of the Prohibition Association, in advancing the request for a new referendum on the whole liquor question in this province, proposed that the Provincial Legislature petition the Canadian Parliament for legislation under which a vote would be taken here at the next federal election.

In this vote the people of the Province would be asked whether they favor the elimination of all liquor importation and manufacture. A verdict in favor of this elimination, of course, would mean the end of the Provincial Government's liquor business after its existing stocks had been consumed, as the liquor stores would have no further source of supply. Only the federal authorities can arrange for a ballot covering manufacture and importation, is was explained.

ADVERTISING OPPOSED

Joseph Patrick, of Victoria, who presented the case against liquor advertising, pointed out that the Government proposes to censor motion picture advertising, and while he was not criticising this move in any way, he felt that liquor advertising offered just

Many In Europe Fleeing From Flooding Rivers

Danube and Tributaries Rise as Result of Recenty Heavy Falls of Snow

Vienna, Feb. 18—Rising waters of the Danube and its tributaries have caused widespread warning of coming floods as sequels to the unprecedented cold and snow of recent weeks. Already thousands of settlers on both banks of Europe's longest river are making for higher ground, many of them taking household effects with them.

Army engineers and soldiers are constructing buttresses to prevent threatened disaster.

THAWS BRING DANGERS

London, Feb. 18.—In prospective thaws a new danger appeared for Europe to-day. It is feared that eventually there will be floods, in which accumulations of ice and snow in the mountains will spread destruction as they seek outlets to the sea.

Meanwhile fierce snowstorms were reported in Central Europe. Ice conditions were as bad as ever in the Scandinavian countries and the wintry weather still caused intense suffering in the Balkans.

In the British Isles the cold subsided somewhat along the coast and, particularly in London, the wind was replaced by a heavy fog. Roads were

INDICATIONS ARE OTTAWA SESSION WILL END IN MAY

Ottawa, Feb. 1—Parliament may prorogue during May. In the corridors of the House of Commons and the Senate, in the lobbies of the leading hotels and other haunts where political stalwarts are wont to gather, this opinion is prevalent to-day.

No agreement on this point has been reached by the leaders of the several parties. With no general election scheduled before 1930, however, Government and Conservative members are inclined to feel disposed toward a short session this year, with the likelihood of considerable fireworks next session. Both the progressives and U.F.A. groups appear also to be in accord.

COMMONS SPEEDS WORK OF SESSION

Ottawa, Feb. 18—Last week in Ottawa saw the country's legislators handling public business with a speed that taxed the memories of old-time political observers for a precedent.

The Commons adopted the Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne after only one full day's debate in which seven speakers took part. Last session nearly 100 members addressed the House in the corresponding debate, which lasted for nearly three weeks. In many quarters the hope has been expressed that last week's example may in future be accepted as a precedent and that the days of long-winded discussion on such an abstract subject as "projected legislation" are over.

TO-DAY'S BUSINESS

To-day the outstanding features probably will be the introduction of the estimates and of the Canadian National Railway branch lines bills by Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Minister of Railways.

In connection with the building of the lines in Western Canada it is understood the differences between the National system and the Canadian Pacific Railway, which also will seek sanction during the present session for a $50,000,000 programme of expansion, have for the most part been composed. Several matters between the two systems remain to be ironed out, but the struggle which was predicted some time ago will not now ensue in such magnitude as was formerly threatened.

The Government of Canada has extensive exhibits, and in fact all the Dominions and many of the colonies are well represented. A six-mile walk is required to pass all the stands.

Railway Strike In Southern Rhodesia

Bulawayo, Rhodesia, Feb. 18.—Personal intercession by Premier H. W. Moffat of Southern Rhodesia obtained a special train to bring sixty-eight foreign tourists here from Livingstone despite the general strike of the Rhodesian railway workers. The men walked out Saturday morning, and but for the action of the Premier the visitors might have been marooned in the colony for some time.

The railway workers demand restoration of $15 a month deducted from their pay in 1922 as an economy measure. The Amalgamated Engineering Union has taken action in sympathy with them.

EVENTS MOVING FAST IN SPAIN

This Week Expected to See Changes; Rivera's Dictatorship Is Tottering

Hendaye, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Feb. 18.—Events of importance in Spain are expected this week. If General Primo de Rivera does not decide to leave the premiership or the civil dictatorship, it is supposed he will introduce modifications in the form of government and give more liberty to the Spanish press to comment on the situation.

His action in suspending the full sitting of the National Assembly which had been arranged for the end of February and the fact that he is not giving out any semi-official communiques increase the opinion that he is being prepared to retire from the office in which he has ruled Spain for more than five years.

NEWSPAPER ARTICLE

An article considered to be the last effort by the Government against the attempts of its enemies to gain power appeared Saturday in the newspaper La Nacion, which represents Government opinion. This article, supposed to have been inspired by a high quarter, spoke of the impossibility of the Government withdrawing from power for many years, a period necessary for the reorganization of the country.

The entire country is following closely the new developments and it is generally believed the Premier will not be able to resist much longer the demand for restoration of a constitutional regime.

Sunshine Aiding King's Recovery

Bognor, Sussex, Feb. 18 (Canadian Press Cable)—King George, for several hours yesterday, was able to sit at his window in Craigwell House, near here, and it was announced to-day he had passed a satisfactory night. Yesterday's pleasant sunshine and warm air, coming after several days of frost for which the English people were so little prepared, was like a harbinger of Spring.

In the region of Craigwell House the sunshine lasted practically throughout the day and the windows of the King's bedroom remained open for several hours.

Ray treatment again was administered by Dr. Hewett.

To-day the weather was slightly warmer.

Mrs. Winnifred Clark Proves Parentage Of Gordon S. Northcott

Mission City, B.C., Feb. 18.—Mrs. Winnifred Clark, sister of Gordon Stewart Northcott, condemned California murderer, has received from Saskatoon an affidavit signed by Victoria Rosenquest, nurse, to the effect that Gordon Stewart Northcott, Mrs. Clark's brother, was born to her mother, Mrs. Louisa Northcott, November 9, 1906. The nurse swears she was present at the birth of the child.

Mrs. Clark has eight other affidavits to the same effect.

Mrs. Northcott, who is now serving a life sentence in California, swore on the witness stand that Mrs. Clark was the mother of Gordon.

The steamer was bound from Sydney to Melbourne. The passengers had been transferred to the steamer Mayarra and the crew reached before the steamer sank.

Calgary Scene Of $60,000 Fire

Big Mill and Piles of Lumber Are Destroyed By Fire

Calgary, Feb. 18.—With flames leaping sixty feet into the sky during its early stages, fire which broke out at 6.30 a.m. Sunday destroyed the mill, machinery and a large part of the lumber storage yards of the A. B. Cushing Mills Limited on Tenth Avenue West, Calgary.

The loss, fully covered by insurance, is placed at between $60,000 and $70,000 by John W. Dingle, manager. The factory and machinery was valued at approximately $25,000, while the stock, including valuable hardwoods and other lumber, was worth more than $35,000, he said.

The brick office building and about 100 feet of lumber yard west of the factory building were saved.

Mr. Dingle stated the company would be able to carry on business as usual with the help of its factories in Moose Jaw and Vancouver. Plans are being rushed for completion of the new factory which has been planned for some time.

LINK BROKEN BY OTTAWA DEATH

Mr. Patterson was a link in the decreasing political chain which binds the Canada of to-day with the Canada as it was soon after Confederation and before Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his first Ministry. Senator Sir George Foster and Sir Hugh John Macdonald now remain as the sole surviving members of the pre-Laurier Ministries.

BORN IN IRELAND

A son of the late Rev. James Patterson of Kingston, near Dublin, Ireland, Mr. Patterson came to Canada in 1857. He entered the civil service at Ottawa, but resigned to devote his time to the study of law, and the year 1876 marked his entry to the bar. He practiced law at Windsor, Ont., and was reeve of Windsor for ten years. He also was warden of Essex County and inspector of schools.

The man whose figure was to rise so high in the political world entered the Ontario Legislature as Conservative member for North Essex in 1874, and in 1878 he first went to the House of Commons as member for Essex County. He held his Commons seat for thirteen years, but the general election of 1891 marked his defeat. Elected member for West Huron, Ont., in 1892, he sat in the Commons till 1895. In 1892 he became Secretary of State in the Abbott administration, while in the succeeding Thompson and Bowell administrations he was Minister of Militia.

HAD MONUMENTS ERECTED

While a member of the Federal Government, Mr. Patterson brought into effect measures for the erection of monuments commemorating some of the principal battlefields of Canada. His interest in national defence was indicated by his presentation of a challenge cup to the Dominion Rifle Association. In 1895 he presented Wolfe's sword and the sword and a portrait of Col. Dunn, V.C., to Upper Canada College, Toronto.

SERVED AS GOVERNOR

His appointment as Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba and Keewatin was made on September 2, 1895, and he served in that capacity for five years. Later, as a commissioner, he investigated titles of ownership by Great Britain of lands in the Arctic Seas.

Mr. Patterson's wife died in 1911.

AIMEE McPHERSON NOTED EVANGELIST, VISITS VICTORIA

Aimee McPherson was born in Ingersoll, Ontario, Canada, October 9, 1890.

At seventeen she was married.

Her husband was Robert Semple, preacher and evangelist. Aimee traveled the world over with him, from circuit riding in bleak Canadian wilds to fashionable London churches and then into yellow China.

Semple died, leaving his wife penniless and about to be a mother.

When the little daughter, Roberta, was six weeks old, somehow or other the mother managed to get back to Canada, preaching as she went, with her babe in her arms.

THE "GOSPEL AUTO"

Lean and hungry years follow. The streets for a church, a rickety, wooden chair for a pulpit. Two listeners to her word when first she preached. Fifty the second time.

The young mother-evangelist bought her a "gospel auto," touring the highways and byways, shouting and whispering the word of God.

She encountered Harold McPherson. Aimee now was twenty-three.

McPherson, Aimee says, promised to evangelize with her—tread all the barren paths the world over with her, entreating unbelievers, giving all to the Lord.

MARRIAGE, THEN DIVORCE

They were married in New York. Eight years ago she divorced him, giving as cause his apathy toward her great work, citing him as a drag upon her. There was a little son, Rolf, now.

Aimee traveled westward, Los Angeles was her final stop. "Here," said she, "I will preach."

Now the tourist learns very quickly that wedging his way into one of the 6,000 free seats of Aimee McPherson's great "House That God Built" is no easy feat.

FIVE BUSY YEARS

Seven years ago it was that the most widely known woman evangelist of all times parked her "gospel auto" on a side street of Los Angeles. With her were her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, and her two children. They had motored across the country from New York.

In May, 1926, when Aimee seemed to have disappeared into the sea at Ocean Park, no less than 20,000 of her followers despaired on the shore. They commanded God to "give us a sign!"

They cast themselves into the waves. They sent blasts of dynamite down into the sea, watching terror-frozen for what the sea might yield. They flew in planes over the deep, looking for their "sign"—. They sobbed and moaned at sight of their loved prophet's green bathing cap bouncing on the waves—kissed it, fought to touch it!

A MARK ON HEART AND SOUL

Thus in seven years has Aimee Semple McPherson put her mark upon the heart and soul of Los Angeles.

The vast white hulk of her Angelus Temple crowns the hills. Aimee herself is reputed a millionaire.

She went to Los Angeles she said because her little daughter, Roberta, recovering from illness, asked to go where it was always sunshine and where she could have a yellow bird that would sing all the time.

NO TEMPLE AT FIRST

There was no million-dollar temple at first. Mrs. McPherson gave her dramatic movie-illustrated sermons in store rooms. Her first crowds of ten became 500 the second time she preached. Ever larger audiences. Larger collections.

There were gifts. Hugs sums of money "for God's work." A beautiful home for herself.

Meanwhile the world would not let Los Angeles have Mrs. McPherson all to itself.

The sophisticated eastern metropolitain world begged her to come to them! London, New York, even her old haunts of China begged her to come back.

She filled a London engagement and went to New York twice—first holding her revival in a remote hall, the second time down town in a fashionable sophisticated church.

THE GREAT DAY

The time seemed ripe at last. Aimee made her plea and the house of God seemed built overnight.

"I'll give the paint!"

"I'll give the lumber!"

"I'll do the plumbing!"

The towers of Angelus Temple are seen for miles about. The wire of station KFSG shine atop it.

The evangelist is as well known to listeners of this station as to those who see her in person.

Ten thousand curious, devout, thrill-loving, worshiping people crowd Angelus Temple three times each Sunday to hear their woman leader.

SON OF LOCAL MAN KILLED IN ACCIDENT

VICTIMS TAKEN OUT

Mr. Merchant and Amos Cade, who reached the car soon after the accident, took the victims from under it. They found Mr. Stewart almost dead and the two women so shaken from shock that they had them conveyed to the Mission Hospital, where they were found to be suffering from scalp and face wounds, being badly but not dangerously injured.

Mr. Steeves, driver of the car, was almost smothered with blood, but on examination he was found to be practically unscratched, the blood having apparently come from the other victims.

The ice at the point where the accident happened is ten inches thick. It was greatly splintered by the impact, but the car bounded clear of the break to solid ice, where it lay till 10 a.m. Sunday, when a wrecking crew got it up.

DEEP WATER

Had the river not been solidly frozen the car and its occupants would have plunged into fourteen feet of water, and the bodies might not have been found for months, as the water is nearly always too muddy at that point to permit the bottom being seen.

The body was taken to the morgue in Mission and an inquest will be held to-day.

as serious a menace as any publicity issued by theatres. This advertising, he said, encouraged drinking, which was not the professed object of Government liquor control.

In asking for a referendum on the continuance of beer parlors in Greater Vancouver Mr. McIntyre declared that the greater city should be given a chance to express its view on the experiment in beer which has been under way for the last four years. He pointed out that there was a provincial majority against beer in the provincial plebiscite of 1924. In Vancouver a majority for beer was made up by the absentee vote which he considered very questionable. Now, after actual trial, the beer parlor system, he affirmed, had proved a failure, for it had not reduced the consumption of hard liquor, as it advocates had promised as its chief advantage. He quoted figures to support this contention.

ALL FULLY EXPLAINED

IN SPITE OF ALL THE FACTS which already have been made public the morning paper persists in saying that the Board of School Trustees has not explained the Technical School bylaw.

An old adage reminds us that none is as blind as he who prefers not to see. The Colonist refuses to see the principal point in this matter. If there is any explanation to be made, it might explain much more convincingly than it so far has done why it is opposed to the extension of technical educational facilities to the youth of this community.

Our contemporary refers us to Winnipeg for evidence of the failure of technical education. We refer it to Vancouver for overwhelming evidence of the outstanding success of technical education. We refer it to many other cities in Canada, in the United States, and to hundreds of cities in the Old World for as much more evidence of this kind as it may require.

Vancouver has just spent more than $500,000 on a new Technical School. The industrialists of that community look upon technical education as valuable to industrial expansion in general as well as a boon to the youth with a mechanical turn of mind.

It is extraordinary at this stage of the province's progress that it is necessary to defend or explain the practical benefits of technical education. The arguments which the morning paper has advanced and continues to advance on the subject—on the subject of education generally, for that matter—belong to an earlier day when only the rich could be properly educated.

Apart from the desirability of extending local technical educational facilities, however, the passage of the bylaw is necessary to correct the serious overcrowding condition at the High School.

The Board of School Trustees, appointed by the electorate to conduct the business of the city's educational activities, has explained the whole situation many times. It is in the interest of the taxpayers and the youth of the community that the authority to spend $145,000 on a Technical School again is being asked for.

Incidentally, Victoria should no longer be known as the only city on this continent which turns its back upon such a proposal.

FOLLOWING THE DREAM

A MIDDLE-WESTERN MILLIONAIRE has bought a yacht and is on his way to the Pacific Ocean to look for a sunken island paradise which was revealed to him in a dream.

Dreams, in themselves, are hardly enough evidence even for rich men. So this man, before buying his yacht, went to California, chartered an aeroplane, and flew out over that part of the ocean where his dream had told him his island lay buried. Lo! there it was, some fifteen or twenty feet below the surface.

So now he's going out in his yacht to give it a thorough examination. He plans to build a breakwater all around the place, pump in sand from the bottom of the sea, and make an island vacation spot out of it.

This business of looking for island Edens in the Pacific is not new. The old Spaniards had the idea just as deeply implanted as this modern millionaire. In their day, just as now, it took a good deal of money to go on such an expedition. One had to buy or charter a ship, or a fleet of them, hire crews, lay in a great stock of provisions, get the consent of the king and the blessing of the church—and then sail thousands of miles across almost uncharted seas.

But there was this difference; all of the places the old explorers went looking for were right on the surface. There was no need to build breakwaters and install costly pumping systems. The ocean fairly teemed with islands. A ship simply couldn't miss them. Most of them had never been seen by white men. Any valiant adventurer could take possession of one and leave the life of Europe forever behind him.

Now, of course, they've all been discovered. All that is left to a man who is guided by a vision is to pull up the bottom of the sea, wipe it off and make an island where formerly there was nothing but ocean. It is a lot harder, and the resulting island, being synthetic, can hardly be quite as satisfactory.

However, that's the way it is with nearly everything in this modern world. All of the frontiers have been pushed back. The era of hard facts and automatic machinery is difficult to escape.

Just the same, escape is still possible. You have to have resources, of course. Not money; unless you are after a definite, physical place, that won't help. Resources of less tangible form—imagination, character, vision—are what you need.

With them, you can still get away. The seeming limits which modern knowledge have put on the spirit won't bother you. You will be able to see and go beyond them, knowing that life is still what it was in an earlier, more credulous day—a great, unexplainable mystery, with room for infinite experience of beauty, terror and joy. That remains true, no matter what the glib psycho-literary folk may tell you.

The islands are still there; you just have to go under the surface a little to find them.

BANK MERGERS

HON. J. A. ROBB'S JUSTIFICATION for authorizing bank mergers is that these, in most cases, were necessary because the weak banks had got into a position which endangered the funds of their depositors and the strong ones took them over to save them.

This is a good reason as far as it goes, but it suggests the necessity of some form of government regulation and supervision of banks which will help to prevent them getting into such a position as to imperil the interests of their depositors and make mergers necessary. The Government should make provision for the locking of the stable door before the horse escapes.

In the last fifteen years the number of banks operating in Canada has been reduced from 25 to 9, mainly by mergers. If all this has been dictated by the necessity of protecting depositors, it is high time the Bank Act was subjected to a more careful overhauling than it receives now. Otherwise the merging process may continue until only five or six banks are left.

The concentration of money power in a small group of banks is not a good thing for the country. Nor, in the end, can it be a good thing for the banks themselves because, whether justly or not, it is likely to prejudice public sentiment against them.

In all fairness it should be pointed out that not all of these mergers were sought by the absorbing banks. In some cases, some of which were mentioned by Mr. Robb, the stronger banks agreed to the amalgamations under Government pressure and the realization that this was the only means of averting losses to depositors, who, we may be sure, welcomed the transactions.

THE SIGN BYLAW

THE REMOVAL OF UNSIGHTLY projecting signs would improve the appearance of the city, but the Council is stretching its sense of the aesthetic too far in requiring the illumination of such signs as are permitted. This illumination may be of no value to the owners of some of the signs, and some of them, by the way, may not be able to afford the luxury of such a display.

This provision of the bylaw actually imposes a fresh tax upon our businessmen, the proceeds of which would go to the vendors of illuminants instead of to the city.

If the object of this provision of the bylaw is to enhance the attractiveness of the city at night, then the city as a whole should pay for it, since everybody, directly or indirectly, would benefit from it. This is apart from the doubt that such a multi-colored pyrotechnic display would improve the appearance of Victoria at any time. It is more likely to suggest the bizarre effects of a bowery district in a large city or the "midway" of a country fair.

In any case, the city authorities logically have no more justification for requiring the illumination of signs than they would have to require property owners to paint the exterior of their premises in some color—aesthetic or jazzy, or both—prescribed by law.

Incidentally, there are many unsightly things besides signs which ought to be removed. Old fences with projecting nails and tumbledown shacks in the very heart of the city are among them. Those old wharves along the waterfront make one's flesh creep. And the City Hall never will win a beauty prize. As a matter of fact, our signs, unsightly though many of them are, are among the most inconspicuous of the blots upon the appearance of the city.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Governments in themselves in British countries have no "inalienable and unrestricted" rights over anything in the way of public business. They are the servants of the electors by whom they are chosen and paid and by whom they can be dismissed.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

THE LESSER EVIL

The Hamilton Spectator

Fascist law makes it a prison offence to kiss one's sweetheart in public. Two swains found guilty of the offence recently were sent to jail for two months and the girls in the case for two days. And just think, if the law hadn't stepped in, all concerned might have voluntarily accepted life sentences.

WINCHESTER'S REEVE

The Toronto Globe

Mr. J. H. Ross, editor of The Winchester Press, was last week given the position of reeve of that progressive village by acclamation. And, as The Smiths Falls Record-News rightly points out, if he conducts the municipal affairs as fearlessly as he conducts his paper, the village will prosper.

LEARNING BY LIVING

(From The Kansas City Times)

One becomes pious by applying one's religion to living. Rabbi Samuel S. Mayerberg of the B'Nai Jehudah congregation tells a Kansas City audience. This statement pute the situation in reverse position from that usually accepted. For we generally assume that one first becomes pious and then applies his piety to living.

But when we consider experience we observe that good living is the best schooling in right thinking. Two thousand years ago this observation was made in the well-remembered words: "If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine." Living expresses a man's real creed.

DANGERS IN BORROWED WORDS

The New York Times

Despite all the official French frowns on the recent importation of English and American customs and expressions, Paris continues to adopt them as rapidly as possible. Fashionable shops liks to use English words to describe their goods, and in conversation it has become the fad to throw in a few borrowed terms. A French editor has issued a list of words which are so much used that he thinks they should be recognized formally as adopted into his own tongue. Some of them are "interview," "detective," "lockout," "folklore" and "star" (in the theatrical meaning).

The use of a foreign word when you could be equally clear by using one in your own language is absurd and pretentious. "Week-end" is a sensible adoption by the French, as "meringue" is by us. But the unwarranted use of foreign terms is likely to lead one into such unintended humor as that practiced consciously by Mr. Frank Sullivan, who, charmed by Miss Irene Bordoni's singing, threw over his best girl with a firm "En dehors, Mimi, en dehors."

The Bidding—South bids no-trump and all pass.

Deciding the Play—West leads Jack of spades and East covers with ace of spades. East plays six of spades which is won by South. South now plays the Jack of clubs which West covers with queen of clubs. What card should be played from Dummy?

The Error—This trick is won with ace of clubs and then king of clubs is played. The remaining three clubs are sacrificed and game is lost thereby.

The Correct Method—Declarer is certain of making the following tricks: Two in spades, two in hearts and one in diamonds. To frame, Declarer must make four club tricks. By refusing to take the first trick, whether covered by queen or not, the remaining four club tricks will in all probability be established.

The Principle—When holding a suit containing ace, king and three small cards in Dummy, and two small cards in closed hand or vice versa, four tricks may be made by ducking the first trick played.

IT IS THE "LABOR PARTY"

To the Editor:—Your correspondent "Whig" is mistaken in saying that there is no such thing as a "Labor Party" in England. "Labor Party" is the official designation of the party led by Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, in the parliamentary returns of the last election. It is so described in Whitaker and the Encyclopaedia Britannica. It will bear that designation, officially in the next election. Nor is "Whig" correct in his statement that the designation "Socialist Party" is generally being substituted for "Labor Party." The only public men and journals using that description are opponents of the party and are trying to make political capital by doing so. Reuters, the famous British press agency, as well as the Central News Agency, use the name "Labor Party." Judging by the results of most of the recent by-elections, the majority of the British electors prefer this party, under any name, to the parties led by either Mr. Baldwin or Mr. Lloyd George.

SPEED SKATERS OF CANADA WIN

In Montreal Meet, Dominion Competitors Take Major Points

Montreal, Feb. 18. — Canadian speed skaters were far superior to invading speedsters from below the border line in the Canadian championship meet which was concluded here Saturday and proved their superiority by winning every senior event on the programme, and every junior race but one. All the individual championships went to Canadians.

Ross Robinson of Toronto was the meet's big point winner. Following Friday night's skating, Robinson was fairly well down in the list with only thirty points, gathered as a result of his victory in the 880 yards. Saturday, however, despite a badly cut leg, he outskated all opposition to win the 440 yards, the three-quarter mile and to place second to Willie Logan of St. John, N.B., in the two-mile event.

Alex Hurd of Hamilton, Ont., who led the pack Friday with fifty points, failed to show Saturday, and could do nothing better than get a third place in the three-quarters mile event, which ten points gave him a grand total of sixty, and third place in the individual scoring.

BIALIS SUSPENDED

The United States skaters were led by Valentine Bialis of Utica, N.Y., and Lloyd Gunthre of Detroit, each of whom scored thirty points. Bialis looked to be their best bet, as he scored his total Friday night. He did not appear for Saturday's skating and as a result was suspended by President Hill of the Amateur Skating Union of the United States for the rest of the season.

The women's senior championship was won by Sybil Beatteay of St. John, N.B. Miss Beatteay was first in the 880 yards and placed third in the 440 yards.

BOYS' TITLE

Charlles Ducharme of Ottawa won the Canadian title for boys under eighteen years of age with Chester Cole of Sackville, N.B., second. Ducharme won the 800 yards and was second in the one-mile event, which was won by Cole.

One-sided Scores Seen in Polo Games

Del Monte, Calif., Feb. 18—Two colorful polo games on Del Monte Field yesterday resulted in easy victories for the Australian-Hawaiian Freebooters over Eastcott, 13 to 4, and for the Burlingame Blues against San Mateo, 12 to 5.

The original Anzac line-up was seen in action again yesterday for the first time in nearly two weeks. S. Pearson, Australian No. 1, and Walter Billingham, Honolulu back, appeared to have recovered from their recent injuries but neither played up to their full potentialities. E. Baldwin, Honolulu, and Curtis Skene, Australian star, played brilliant polo, scoring seven and four goals for the Freebooters, respectively.

In the Burlingame Blues—San Mateo fracas, the former played with a nerve and dash that baffled their red-checkered opponents. Howard and Schwerin of the Blue team went strong through the melee and received great assistance from Pope and Walsh. The San Mateo players missed numerous shots at the goal and seemed to be out-manoeuvred throughout.

THE OLD ORDER CHANGES

By DAVID LYALL

How happy she was to be planted in the armchair with her knitting, watching and directing her darling's culinary operations, nobody guessed, excepting herself.

"I'll let you off this time, madam, but don't let it happen again," Mary observed severely, as she tucked her hand in the crook of the old lady's best arm. "I've had a visitor in the kitchen already, watching me toast the scones. Guess whom?"

"I couldna, but I thocht I heard a man speaking."

"You did; something more than a mere man, a great gentleman, Granny, and don't you forget it — the new Squire of Mardocks."

"Peety me, what did he want here?"

"Me," answered Mary, and then she blushed deeply for no known reason. "To see me and ask questions about Mardocks. Poor man, he's at sea without a pilot."

"Well, you'd mak' a good one for him, lassie. It shows the man's common sense."

"I've taught little Mardocks for four years, Granny, and got to know big Mardocks through them, that's all. And, having no axe to grind at all, I can put him on the right lines as far as my judgment serves me. Of course, it is limited; but let me tell you a secret. He's going to wake up the dry bones out there; make big changes; and Madam is shaking in her shoes."

"It canna affect her very much, my dear. She'll be outen it."

"No, she won't. She has no life away from Mardocks, poor dear, and she'll stop on, whatever it costs her. But he's very strong, Granny, and his sympathies are big and human. How long does spinach take to boil? I believe I've forgotten."

"I don't ken, lass. There was nae spinach on the Clyde; a good sensible cabbage or a cauliflower and mashed keeps in Winter. They eat queer stuff here in England, raw an' biled—"

"Oh, you old dear vandal, you must be converted to spinach. Mrs. Beeton it'll have to be this time, then—since you're a broken reed."

She pulled the book out of the dresser drawer, turned to its appointed page, and read out the recipe.

"Creamed spinach—have we any cream, I wonder, and if we have, would it be extravagant to use it? Serve with hard-boiled eggs in slices. My hat, but she is extravagant. Never mind, daddy likes it, so we'll go the whole hog. Sit quietly, old dear, and where's your knitting, for there's quite a lot of grit to get off the spinach first. Grit is fatal, except in the human being when Mardocks has to be tackled."

She prepared her spinach with great care, all unaware it was going to prove the "piece de resistance" for a very honored guest.

The morning flew. More than once Mary glanced at the clock, then across to the door in the wall, but still the dilapidated bicycle stood by the steps. Finally, she laid a clean cloth and an extra place, sure in her inmost heart that her father would bring Manning in to lunch; it would never occur to him to warn or send word. His spontaneous hospitality, offered without the smallest regard to the convenience of his household or the shortness of rations, had been a frequent bone of contention between him and his wife. He dispensed the kind of hospitality to which he had been used in his father's house, i.e., to give the best you have to a neighbor without apology or excuse.

Never in all his life had he seen anything on his own table he wanted to apologize for, which was something to Harriet's credit.

After the din of the hooter had died away, and the rush of many feet followed it down the street, the door in the wall opened and the two men emerged. Mary and taken off her overall by this time, and put on a clean white blouse, which made her look very fresh and neat.

Granny arose from her armchair in the dining-room, and her keen old eyes searched Manning's face as Freeland said simply, "This is my Mother, Major."

Inwardly her heart sang and her intelligence decided that he would do.

CHAPTER XVI

The sun was sailing high in the clearest and bluest of skies. No wintry airs were abroad. It was a royal day, ushering in September with a promise that the full glory and special charm of Autumn should be fulfilled.

On the high lands above the sea, harvest had already been gathered; the stubble fields were now the happy hunting ground of partridge coveys fattening themselves unconsciously for the sportsman's gun and the sportsman's table. An ideal day for the happy dwellers in camp; the members of the Girls' Club from Basingfold reckoned to have the time of their lives.

They had only come into camp on Friday afternoon, and some of them were new to the experience. Their guide and leader, Mary Freeland, was an old camping hand, who left nothing to chance. Bit by bit they had gathered their equipment, taking as much pride in it as other people take in their own homes, so that there was no borrowing, begging or stealing, when they went into camp. The white tents, like butterflies, dotted a sheltered hollow in a dip of the downs which stretched away across the purple silences of the moors to the far horizon. The cliffs hemmed them in on one side, and the sea, with its lovely stretch of yellow sand, only available for bathing at low tide.

Mary had chosen the high ground for preference, though there were other camping sites farther along with easier access to the sea, because they came from a low-lying place, and because she loved the great wide spaces, the glint of the heather, the wind across the waste, with the tang of the sea in it. It might be the call of the blood, for, in the far back days, on the distaff side, her people had been Highland born.

They had paraded and marched to early morning service at the nearest church, leaving a small section to prepare the midday meal, that had been eaten with the relish of good appetite and carefree spirits. Now, everything being in order, they had the afternoon to themselves for reading, walking, or rest. Mary had drawn up her own set of rules, modeled on the best she could find in the club world, and had freed them from every hint of tiresome restriction. There was no petty nagging, but a great deal of trust, a presupposition that noi one would do anything to bring discredit on the club. The punishment for infringement of the few rules which kept the thing together, was expulsion, and a long probation before readmission. After some reflection, Mary had decided on this drastic procedure, because, knowing the spirits she had to deal with, it was the only way. She had not burdened the club with too many officials. She had their clergyman's daughter, Ruth Vidal, for secre' y, and they were the only two officers with the club that Sunday, though two more were expected in the ensuing week.

Ruth Vidal was not strong, and after the walk in the sun to and from the church, had lain down in her camp bed with a book, the tent door flapping, and had fallen asleep. She was found thus by a messenger to say that a tall stranger had come inquiring for Miss Freeland.

"Who is he?" she asked sleepily. "Please go and tell him I don't know where she is, except that she went off for a walk across the moor. Ask him to come back at tea time, when she will be sure to be here."

This message was duly conveyed with much ceremony by the short-skirted flapper, who, with an older girl, had been told off to watch the camp belongings and ward off marauders. This particular marauder seemed pleased with the information vouchsafed, lifed his hat, and following certain directions, proceeded to explore the moor.

It was a somewhat colossal, and very probably would prove a wholly futile task, for the moors just at that particular part of the Yorkshire coast seem to inherit the earth.

But, having the afternoon before him, and the ultimate certainty of finding her whom he sought sooner or later, the first man visitor to Triton Bay Camp was very well content. He had seen nothing more beautiful and soul-satisfying than that glorious stretch of moor and sea, and even if the object of his journey should not be attained, there would be something to the good. A new vista to bind him to the England of his dreams. He then wished, with a sharp sensation of envy, that the heritage which he had crossed the seas to claim had been set in some such environment. Surely "In wide spaces far from feverous towns," as George Macdonald sings, there must be more room for the souls of men to grow, and life must be a cleaner, finer, nobler thing, more free from narrow limitations and sordid limitations.

And yet, is not the Kingdom of God within?

He wandered for an hour, and the hands of his wristwatch pointed to four o'clock before the flutter of a grey skirt beside a clump of gorse gave him a whisper of hope. Of course, it might not be her skirt, but there were very few stragglers to be seen, and he even wondered that she had not been a little nervous about wandering alone in these vast spaces. He saw her first before she was aware of his approach, sitting on a knoll, with her feet drawn up, her hat on the ground beside her, her pink jersey coat open at the throat and her face turned to sea, her brown hands clasped round her knees, and her whole attitude suggestive of complete absorption.

New Recipe for Coloring Gray Hair

By LOIS PAGE

One of the questions most frequently asked me is: "What shall I do for my greying hair?" Unhesitatingly I recommend that tried and proven recipe of sage tea and sulphur. A brew of common garden sage with sulphur and alcohol added, makes the best hair restorer I know of.

You can either prepare the mixture yourself at home, or as most people prefer to do, buy it already prepared and ready to use. Wyeth's Sage & Sulphur is the name of the ready-to-use preparation and since all druggists sell it at 75c a bottle, there is really no need of going to the bother of making it yourself.

You simply moisten a comb or soft brush with it, and draw it through the hair, one strand at a time. One application banishes the grey and one or two more completely restores your grey, faded or streaked hair to its original color. There is no hard, dyed look. The whole effect is one of perfect naturalness. Thousands of men and women use this preparation with no one suspecting it. (Advt.)

WANT ROYAL CIPHER AGAIN ON MAIL VANS

National I.O.D.E. Wants "G.R." Restored in Place of "Canada's Mail"

"Whereas it has come to the attention of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire that the honored letters "G.R." (Georgius Rex) have been eliminated from the mail wagons, circuit boxes, and other post office plant and equipment of Canada, and

"Whereas the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire believe that such elimination militates against the unity and solidity of the Empire by the removal of an Empire symbol and visible connecting link between Canada and the Empire, and

"Whereas the express purpose and mission of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire is the determination to hold fast to all these ties which cement the connection in Canada with the Empire, and with the firm belief that the continued prosperity and greatness of Canada's destiny lies in this connection,

"Be it resolved, that the National Executive Committee Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, National Chapter of Canada in session assembled, do protest against this action, and respectfully urge the federal authorities to reinsert this symbol, and further request the repeal of the words in the revised Post Office Act "Canada's Mail" and restoring the words "His Majesty's Mail," the words used since Confederation, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Right Honorable the Prime Minister, who it is stated in the press is giving this matter his personal attention at the present time and to the Postmaster General."

This resolution was passed at the meeting of the national executive of the I.O.D.E. at its meeting held in Ottawa recently, Mrs. J. A. Stewart, the president, in the chair.

Messervy Prince Edward Island, who expect to study at Oxford; and Sylvia Lettice Thrupp, British Columbia; Alan A. Macnaughton, Quebec; G. E. Britnell, Saskatchewan, who will probably go to London.

Are Babies Wreckers Of Homes?

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Monsieur L. P. Naftzger, the most prominent divorce lawyer of Paris, says: "If a couple lives through the first year without too much discord their chances of staying married all their lives are seventy per cent. good.

"If their marriage goes well over five years, they are good until after fifteen or twenty years of married life. That is the second great critical age."

Judge Ben Lindsey is again heard from to the effect that "the middle-aged sweetie" is the rock that is likely to wreck the ship of marriage—which would back up to the letter the statement of the French lawyer.

Now comes a rather astonishing announcement from the oracle on marriage. One cannot blame Judge Lindsey for radical statements. He is merely telling one-half of the world how the other half lives, giving the facts of his experience. He hasn't made the facts. We may listen or not as we choose.

"It's all bunk about a baby keeping the couple together," says Judge Lindsey. "That may be true sometimes, but in my experience I've frequently found that trouble comes right after the birth of the first baby."

I can only add that if such is the case and this is the stuff that human beings are made of, it all looks too hopeless to correct.

If children are going to be looked upon as a plague instead of a blessing, the human race had better stop right now.

Canadian Daughters' League—The monthly social meeting of the Canadian Daughters' League will be held on Tuesday evening in the Sons of Canada Hall, View Street. Business will include initiations. The birthday group will take charge of the social part of the evening.

PIONEER WOMAN OF CITY KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Mrs. S. F. Bucknam Passes in Los Angeles After Accident

Was Widow of Pioneer Pilot of Victoria; Here Twenty-five Years

Injured in an automobile accident while visiting her son and daughter in Los Angeles, Mrs. Sarah Fitzmaurice Bucknam, widow of Capt. Bucknam, pioneer pilot of Victoria, passed away on Saturday in the California City, according to word received here. She was in her seventy-first year.

Mrs. Bucknam, who with her husband came to this city in the old schooner Ariel during the late 80's, resided here about twenty-five years while Capt. Bucknam was in the pilotage. Following his death about twelve years ago she moved to the mainland.

Mrs. Bucknam was the daughter of the late William Fitzmaurice of St. John, New Brunswick, and granddaughter of the late Capt. John Fitzmaurice, who was captain of the Duke of Kent's bodyguard, Halifax. She was a descendant of the Petty Fitzmaurice branch of the Fitzmaurice family, of which the Marquis of Landsdowne is head.

Mrs. Bucknam is survived by five daughters and two sons: Mrs. Stockkebye and Mrs. Donald MacKay of Vancouver, Mrs. Ware, Los Angeles; Mrs. O'Farrell, San Francisco, and Mrs. Prendeville, England; Hardy of Los Angeles and George of Vancouver.

The fatal accident occurred two weeks ago, a car dashing around a corner at high speed, crashing into the auto which was being driven by Mrs. Bucknam's son Hardy, who was also injured but is recovering.

POPULAR COUPLE WED SATURDAY

Miss Helen Carson and Reginald G. Williams United at Pretty Ceremony

The home of Mrs. F. A. Moir, 2316 Quadra Street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday evening, when Rev. Clem Davies, D.D., united in marriage, Miss Helen Carson, third daughter of Mrs. Kennedy, of Courtenay, B.C., and the late Mr. Wm. Carson, to Mr. Reginald George Williams, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Williams, of 1154 Kings Road.

The bride looked charming in a beautiful crepe de Chine dress of aster shade, with a picture hat of pink georgette and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and pink and white carnations. The bride was attended by Miss Annie Moir dressed in powder blue crepe de Chine with picture hat to match. Her bouquet was of pink and white carnations. Mrs. F. A. Moir, becomingly dressed in French beaded georgette of navy blue with hat of pink and grey, gave the bride in marriage. The groom was supported by Mr. Ernest Robinson.

During the ceremony the bridal party stood under a huge wedding bell which was suspended from an artistic arch of green and white. The table was effectively decorated in pink and mauve, and was centred with the wedding cake and pink candles in triple silver sconces.

While the register was being signed Mrs. Bert Hebden, sister of the groom, sang, "All Joy Be Thine."

Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Williams left on the midnight boat for the Mainland and upon their return they will reside here.

Girl Recruit To "Back-to-nature" Colony Arrested

San Francisco, Feb. 18.—Federal immigration authorities to-day arrested a twenty-two-year-old girl, member of a back-to-nature colony encamped on the Ingleside Beach here, on suspicion of having illegally entered the country.

The young woman is Miss Ivy Gitlow and is charged with crossing the Canadian line into Washington hidden in the tonneau of a touring car several months ago.

Other members of the colony blamed her arrest on a former "nature man," whose courtship she rebuffed in accordance with the rules of the cult, which prohibit love affairs.

"That the Government of the Dominion of Canada, through the Minister of Health of the Dominion, be requested to provide the financial assistance to the provinces of the Dominion of Canada in the same manner as is at present provided for the control of venereal diseases, to the extent of one-quarter of the cost of maintaining such local health units and thus assume permanently the portion of the cost of such units covered by the temporary grants from the Rockefeller Foundation."

This resolution was brought before the Victoria Women's Institute at its meeting Friday, and will be discussed at its next meeting.

Curling Champs Enter Dominion Title Finals

Winnipeg, Feb. 18.—Gordon Hudson's great Strathcona club quartette, Dominion curling champions in 1928 and holders of the MacDonald Briar trophy, qualified Saturday night for the right to defend their title at Toronto against other provincial championships by winning the Manitoba MacDonald Briar championships from sixteen of the leading rinks entered in the annual Manitoba curling bonspiel. No less a foe than Ossie Barkwell of Yellow Grass, Sask., faced Hudson in the final, but the Canadian title holders drew away to an early lead and though pressed by the desperate Saskatchewan four in the closing stages, staved off defeat by a single shot. The score was nine to eight.

PAZO for PILES

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

SIMPLE WARDROBE FOR THE BABY

Mr. C. S. writes:

"I am undecided as to what I should buy for the baby. I am not in a position to spend much; will you give me a list of the absolutely necessary things, the number of each, the size of diapers, the kind of bedding, the toilet articles and what is needed for the carriage?"

Mrs. Eldred

ANSWER

The following list is based on the above assumption that money is an object and strict economy must be enforced.

Three abdominal binders, fine, unhemmed flannel, 6x20 inches, or a knitted binder bought ready made (for use until the navel is healed).

Three light-weight cotton and wool or all cotton shirts, size two. Last type for Summer baby.

Three light weight cotton and wool or silk and wool bands, with shoulder straps and tabs for diapers. For use after binder is discarded.

Three outing flannel nightgowns twenty-seven inches long, front closing.

Seven nainsook or long cloth slips, twenty to twenty-two inches long.

Four to six dozen birdseye cotton diapers, 22x44 and 36x36 inches.

Coat and hood suitable to the season. Buy or copy ready made ones.

Two eiderdown squares, suitably edged, or two crib blankets. For use around baby during the first weeks.

Two all-wool blankets for crib and one or two cheesecloth comforts, wool or cotton bat filled, according to the season.

Three white petticoats for Summer, three light-weight flannel ones for Winter, made over a Gertrude pattern.

Three pairs of long hose, cotton for Summer, merino for Winter.

One crib or large basket, hair-filled mattress or cotton-filled one to fit; seven sheets to fit and square of oilcloth and felting cloth for use over mattress.

TOILET BASKET

A covered basket.

Safety pins, absorbent cotton, cheesecloth wash cloths, soft towels for drying, clinical and bath thermometer, olive or mineral oil, bottle for salt water, toothpicks, Castile soap, baby powder. Frames for drying shirts and hose. One square of old blanket for use at bath time. One tub for baby and scales weighing up to fifty pounds. These are absolutely essential for keeping baby clean and comfortable.

NANCY PAGE

NANCY DOES A REAL JOB OF RELAXING BY DAY

By Florence La Ganke

Nancy found that she required more relaxation and rest this Winter than ever before. And she was wise enough to take it. This meant she was refreshed, more poised, less nervous and better adapted to take care of her five-month-old son. She kept hold of her nerves so that she did not treat her husband, Peter Page, to distressing tantrums and fits of petulancy and tears. Formerly she had slipped of her dress and thrown herself on the day bed and rested for fifteen or twenty minutes. Now she trained herself to slip out of her clothes and into pyjamas. Then she stretched herself full length in bed.

Her pyjamas were made of heavy washable satin. The trousers are straight lined with no trimming. On the coat the yoke was hemstitched and decorated at centre front with a bit of embroidery. She made another pair of these in French flannel. For this suit she put sleeves into the coat. She found these warmer on chilly Winter days. Her kimono was of silk with velvet bands. In lining this she used soft challis. She found that silk linings were so slippery cold. She snuggled into the soft warmth of this negligee outfit and drifted into a nap as easily as if she had been Peter Page Junior who was still sleeping many hours of the day.

Royal Oak W.I.—The card parties under the auspices of the Royal Oak Women's Institute will be resumed on Thursday, Feb. 21, at the home of Mrs. J. G. Nicholson, East Saanich Road, play to commence at 8 p.m. sharp. A good attendance is hoped for, as important matters will be under discussion.

N.H.L. Teams In Stirring Fight For Play-off Places

Toronto Pulls Only Important Change In Club Standings

Break Tie For Third Place in Canadian Section by 3-0 Victory Over Montreal Maroons Saturday, But Tumble Before Detroit Last Night; Rangers Hard Pressed to Win From Pittsburgh, 2-1, Both Winners' Goals Coming With Pirate Players Off Ice; 13,000 Fans Disappointed With Canadiens-Americans Deadlock.

Toronto, Feb. 18.—Speeding along in the stirring stretch drive which will end in the play-offs, National Hockey League teams fought hard in six games over the week-end, some to keep their coveted places in the first three, others attempting to enter the charmed circle.

The only important change in the standings was accomplished by the fast-traveling Maple Leafs, who defeated Montreal Maroons, 3-0, Saturday and broke the tie between the two teams for third place in the section. Last night Toronto was beaten by Detroit, 2-0, but they still remain in third place.

Canadiens continued two points ahead of the Americans in the international section by playing a tie game with the Yankees Saturday, while New York Rangers and Boston maintained their position at the head of the United States group by winning over Pittsburgh and Chicago, respectively, 3-0 and 2-1.

Ottawa Senators, who occupy the cellar position in the international group, won from Pittsburgh, 2-0, in the sixth game.

PENALTIES ROB MAROONS

Penalties robbed Maroons of any chance they may have had of winning from Toronto. After two scoreless periods, Toronto got three goals in the third, two while Maroons were minus two of their men.

Thirteen thousand spectators were dissatisfied with the Canadiens-Amgricans deadlock. Connor got the New York goal in the second period and the Americans fell back on the defensive. Leduc scored for Canadiens in the final session. Throughout, Montreal were aggressors, while Americans preferred to wait for a break.

Rangers at Pittsburgh were just able to eke out a win. Pittsburgh scored in the first period and held the lead until penalties gave New York an advantage in the final period. Thompson and Vail got the goals, both of which came with a Pirate in the penalty box.

GOALIE PENALIZED

Boston's defence wall was impregnable in their game with Chicago. Gainor scored in the second period and McKay and Oliver tallied in the final frame. Gardiner, Chicago goalie, was penalized in the second period and Taylor took his place, shutting out the Bruins during the time he guarded the nets.

Toronto Leafs were obviously wearied in their game with Cougars. Goals resulted from scrambles in front of the Toronto nets, Aurie and Connors being given the credit.

Ottawa needed overtime to defeat the Pirates, the winning counter coming from Kilrea's stick a minute and a half from the end of the extra session. Darragh had sent the Pirates into the lead in the second frame and Touhey had evened it up on a pass from Kilrea within three minutes.

Detroit, Feb. 18—Toronto Maple Leafs obviously wearied by a tough game with Montreal Maroons the previous evening, dropped a game to the Cougars here last night 2 to 0.

The Cougars carried most of the offence and the two goals, both of them of a freak nature, counted their scores.

Toronto—Chabot, Day, Smith, Blair, Cox, Bailey, Horne, Duncan, Pettinger, Horner and Cotton.

Toronto—Chabot, Day, Smith, Blair, Cox, Bailey, Horne, Duncan, Pettinger, Horner and Cotton.

Detroit—Dolson Noble, Brydge, Connor, Cooper, Hay, Traub, Lewis, Aurie, Herberts and Brophy.

Summary:

First period—1, Detroit, Aurie, 15.05.

Second period—2, Detroit, Connor, 14.40.

Third period—No score.

New York, Feb. 18—A team of fighting Pirates gave the New York Rangers, leaders of the American Section of the N.H.L., a serious scare here last night but the world's champions came back in the last period to eke out a 2-1 victory.

Two penalties were the principal factors in the Pirates' defeat after Darragh and Milks had put them one goal ahead in the second frame.

One Pittsburgh player was in the penalty box when each of the Ranger goals were scored.

The line-up:

Rangers—Roach, Abel, Bourgault, Boucher, Bill Cook, Bun Cook, Murdock, Thompson, Keeling, Vail, Carson, Bouchard and Holway.

Pittsburgh — Miller, McCafferty, Smith, Fredrickson, Darragh, Milks, McKinnon, Lowrey, Drury, McCurry and Spring.

First period—No score.

Second period—1, Pittsburgh, Darragh, 14.10.

Third period—2, Rangers, Vail, 11.43; 3, Rangers, Thompson, 11.41.

Montreal, Feb. 18—Canadiens still hold a two-point margin at the top of the International group of the N.H.L. Their closest rival for sectional honors, the New York Americans, visited the forum Saturday night and held the flying Canucks to a one-goal draw.

Sensational goal tending by Roy Worters, their net guardian, plus a consistently strong defensive system, kept the Americans in the battle throughout. Canadiens led offensively almost throughout.

The line-ups:

Americans—Worters, Reise, Conacher, Burch, Broadbent, Connor, Himes, Sheppard, McVeigh, Dye, Simpson and White.

Canadiens — Hainsworth, Mantha, Burke, Lepine, Gagne, Joliat, Gardiner, Leduc, Morenz, Patterson, Mondou and G. Mantha.

Third period—Connor, Burke and Broadbent.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 18—The Ottawa Senators took the measure of the Pittsburgh Pirates here Saturday night in a seventy-minute N.H.L. encounter. The score was 2-1, the final marker coming with but a minute and thirty seconds to play in the second frame. Nighbor, playing centre for the Senators, showed the effects of his illness. He was not the Nighbor of olden days.

The line-ups:

Pittsburgh—Miller, R. Smith, McCaffrey, Fredrickson, Darragh, Milks, MacKinnon, Drury, Howay, Lowrey and McCurry.

Ottawa—Connell, A. Smith, Clancy, Nighbor, Finnegan, Kilrea, Shields, Grosvenor, Elliott, Godin and Touhey.

Toronto, Feb. 18—Defeating Montreal Montreal Maroons 3-0 in a hectic N.H.L. game here Saturday night, Toronto Maple Leafs climbed into third place in the International Section standing. It was the Leafs' third straight win. The first two periods were scoreless. Penalties then made deep inroads into the Maroon line-up in the third.

The line-ups:

Toronto—Chabot, A. Smith, Day, Blair, Bailey Cox, Horne, Duncan, Cotton, Pettinger and Horner.

Gardiner was ordered off the ice on a minor in the second period for tripping Shore. Taylor, without pads, went in to guard, and did a splendid job.

The line-ups:

Stribling In Pink of Condition

Both Fighters For Heavyweight Battle Afraid of Overdoing Training

Dempsey Worrying Over Injury to Principals; Receipts Still Soaring

Miami, Fla., Feb. 18—Both Jack Sharkey and Young Stribling are so far along the road to perfect condition for their fight on February 27 that both are in danger of overdoing.

Stribling, boxing an average of once a week throughout the South and Southwest, is down to 185 pounds, as low as he dares to go.

Sharkey, with a hard-won victory over K.O. Christner just under his belt, is within two pounds of being ready at 194. He planned a complete rest to-day and Stribling will refrain from labor, both to-day and to-morrow.

A PROFIT IN SIGHT

The heavyweight engagement Tex Rickard planned as an advertisement for other ventures here promises to net the Madison Square Garden Corporation a handsome return. When William F. Carey, railroad builder and vice-president of the Garden, took over promotion of the match with Jack Dempsey, he considered a loss of $100,000 a good investment in order to maintain the corporation's prestige. With the fight still ten days away the match seems well on the way to $100,000 profit.

DEMPSEY WORRIES

Now with the reins Tex Rickard dropped in death firmly in his hands, Dempsey is worrying about everything that can worry a promoter. He is afraid of injury to both fighters. He looks daily at the arena now completed and ready to seat 35,000 in Flamingo Park, to be sure it's still there and he haunts the afternoon workouts of the battlers with constant forebodings of accidents.

Yesterday he had his first cause for worry over Sharkey, who injured his left thumb eking out a narrow victory over Christner in a rgged fracas in Madison Square Garden last month. The Boston tar twisted the same thumb Saturday landing a punch on the heavy skull of Paul Hoffman, one of his sparring partners. Bright and early yesterday Dempsey visited the Sharkey training quarters to find out the extent of the injury and then went into a protracted worying session with himself on the beach.

After Dempsey advised the Boston sailor to refrain from boxing yesterday afternoon, Sharkey went out and pummeled his sparring partners for five rounds. Dempsey prowled about the ringside every moment of the action, his rakish Panama pulled down over his eyes, worrying as thoroughly as Tex Rickard ever did.

Sharkey kept his weapons trained on the moderately soft bodies of Paul Hoffman for two rounds, Johnny Grosso, Pat McCarthy and Charlie Pond for a round apiece.

NO SIGN OF INJURY

He showed no sign of the injury but decided to do no work to-day. Sharkey was low and listless in his drill and appeared to be saving energy for final polishing workouts.

A few minutes after Sharkey ended his work for the day with five rounds of bag punching, rope skipping and shadow boxing, Dempsey appeared at the casino, where Stribling toils and found something more to worry about there. The Macon youngster, in razor-edge condition, was fast and hard but had difficulty controlling the left hook he hopes will beat Sharkey.

Time and again Stribling whipped over those southpaw pokes only to find them shading the foul line and sometimes dropping below. Dempsey went away from there worrying about the possibilities of a foul ending his first promotorial venture on the night of February 27.

England Leads After Fourth Wicket Falls

Visiting Cricketers Overcome New South Wales in First Inning Despite Loss of Sutcliffe and Hammond, Who May Be Unable to Play Against Australia on March 8; New South Wales All Out For 128, While England Scores 144 For Four Wickets.

Sydney, Aus., Feb. 18 (Canadian Press Cable Via Reuter's).—The cricket match between New South Wales and England was continued here to-day.

New South Wales players, who had scored 126 runs for eight wickets in their first innings on Saturday, were dismissed when two more runs had been added.

England occupied the wicket for the balance of the day and had put on 144 runs for four wickets when play was discontinued owing to the bad light.

The wicket to-day was very soft after a heavy rain on Sunday. After J. C. White, the English bowler, had captured the wickets of Morris and McNamee to end the New South Wales innings, Hobbs and Leyland opened the innings of the tourists. Hobbs's 39, under the circumstances, was meritorious. A third appeal on the ground of the light was upheld by the umpires.

Toronto, Feb. 18.—Canadian law tennis championships will be held on the courts of the Toronto Tennis Club during the week beginning July 22, it was announced here Saturday following the annual meeting of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association.

Hard Grounds Play Havoc With Soccer Games In Britain

In English Cup Games Only Two Home Teams Were Defeated, While in Scottish Cup Matches Only Two Home Clubs Won Their Games; Blackburn Rovers, Cup-holders, Triumph Over Bury; Middlesbrough Regains Lead in Second Division; Remarkable Goal Gives Kilmarnock Win Over Albion Rovers.

London, Feb. 18.—Ground advantage evidently meant a great deal in the fifth round of the English Football Association Cup competitions played Saturday. Only two clubs playing at home lost. Three minor teams got draws at home from First Division clubs, Swindon, Bournemouth and Chelsea, while one of the lesser clubs, West Bromwich Albion, got into the next round by virtue of their win over Bradford. Other winners were Huddersfield Town, who beat Crystal Palace; Bolton Wanderers, who traveled to Leicester; Aston Villa, who won at Reading, and Blackburn Rovers, the cup holders, who triumphed over Bury.

Replays during the coming week will be Swindon at Arsenal, Bournemouth and Boscombe at West Ham United and Chelsea at Portsmouth.

Unprecedented conditions prevailed, the grounds being frozen hard.

A FINE WIN

In the First Division league games Sunderland pulled off a fine win over Manchester City by 3-1. Sunderland were always the more dangerous, but the city goalie saved his fort time and again. Halliday got right in on him several times in the first half but could only score one goal. Johnson equalized from a penalty and near the end Clunas netted twice, both from penalties.

Middlesbrough got back into the lead in the Second Division while Chelsea was playing in their cup tie by soundly beating Notts County by 3-0 at Nottingham. Camsell netted in the twenty-second minute of play. Soon after the turn round Middlesbrough took command and Pease headed in. Bruce got Middlesbrough's third tally.

Glasgow, Scotland, Feb. 18—Third round Scottish Football Association Cup games Saturday were played under semi-arctic conditions. All the grounds were like rock with a thin layer of snow over the pitches. Only two home teams won, though the results were about what was expected.

A big crowd was on hand at Shawfield, where the local Clyde team battled with the Rangers. Muirhead scored for the Rangers close to half time and Archibald notched another count just after resumption.

Celtic, who were at home to Arbroath, found them troublesome at the start. The visitors, however, failed to score on a penalty kick and then Celtic made their bid. McGrory scored twice in quick succession. Arbroath were not done and Low got a tally back. In the second half McGrory added to his laurels by getting a brace more for Celtic.

UNLUCKY TO LOSE

Albion Rovers were unlucky to lose to Kilmarnock, who won on a remarkable goal scored from a free kick five minutes from the end. Palmer, the home goalkeeper, ran out to check Connell, who dodged him and netted. Had the goalkeeper allowed the ball to pass it would have been disallowed as a goal cannot be scored from a free kick given for dangerous play.

Falkirk's defeat at home by Aberdeen caused a mild surprise. Gall opened the score for Falkirk and then Yorston netted twice for Aberdeen. In the second half Yorston again scored and Gall registered for Falkirk. Morrison brought the score even with a goal from a penalty kick but Aberdeen were destined to get another couple of tallies through Yorston and Smith.

Draw Announced For Sixth Round Of English Cup

London, Feb. 18.—The draw for the sixth round of the English Football Association Cup competition was made to-day and announced as follows:

Blackburn vs. Bolton.

Aston Villa vs. Swindon or Arsenal.

Chelsea or Portsmouth vs. Bournemouth or West Ham.

West Bromwich vs. Huddersfield.

The first-mentioned clubs are the home teams.

The round will be played March 2.

ALBIE DAVIES MATCHED WITH FORMER CHAMP

Classy Victoria Fighter Will Meet Ainsworth, Who Held Canadian Title

Ten-round Fight to Take Place Saturday Night at Sons of Canada

The Victoria Boxing Club has secured the services of George Ainsworth, of Vancouver, former amateur champion of Canada, as an opponent for the local flash, Albie Davies, who has been [illegible] the padded mit game for the last couple of months due to the scarcity of opponents who would appeal to the cash customers.

Jack Allen, the Vancouver promoter, on behalf of the local club, tried to get Frankie Grandetta, the Hollywood Sheik, Ketchell, of Tacoma, and other prominent fighters for a bout with the local fighter but without success. Allen, however, got George Ainsworth, who is noted all over Canada as one of the best amateurs to be developed in the country, to turn professional. Ainsworth made his professional debut in the main event in the Calvary Club's bouts in Vancouver last Friday night when he beat McBeth the clever Abbotsford fighter

CLEVER FIGHTER

The ex-amateur champion is rated as a very clever fighter who has had many years experience in the padded ring game. One of Ainsworth's most notable ring achievements was a draw with the now world-famous Jimmy McLarnin just before he turned professional

The boys have agreed to fight ten rounds at 126 pounds and they will weigh in at 3 o'clock of the day of the contest. The bouts will be staged at the Sons of Canada Hall.

Davies will start working out tonight at the Victoria West gymnasium and he will have Wing Hay, Danny Pastroe and brother Jumbo as sparring partners. The fans are invited to attend the workouts which will start at 7.30.

FORDS DEFEAT WHIPPETS 2-0

Tail-enders Take Game From League Leaders in Garage Hockey League

Coming to life in the second and third periods, the National Motor Company's Fords sent Thomas Plimley's league-leading Whippets down to a 2-0 defeat in the Garage Hockey League fixture played at the Arena Saturday night. By virtue of their win the Fords are now only one point behind the second place teams.

After going through a scoreless first period, Bell, husky defence man for the Fords, skated in on Crabb in Plimley's net and scored on a hard drive for the winners' first counter. The National Motors' players continued to keep Crabb on the jump for the rest of the period, while Thompson, star for the Whippets, made some pretty individual attempts on the rival goal.

Gamon scored the Fords' second counter during the final period when he circled round the Whippets' defence and slapped the puck into the corner of the net.

The teams were as follows:

Plimley's — Crabb, Meyers, Wood, Scott, Cracknell, Jobbin, Thompson and Hall.

National Motors—Walker, Holland, Bell, Williams, Heal, Gamon, Anderson, Young and Robson.

Percy Williams to Take Another Crack At 60-metre Record

After Breaking World's Record For Distance Saturday Night, Vancouver Sprinter Will Run To-night at Annual Games of New York Athletic Club; Ray Barbuti and Jimmy Ball to Take Part in 500-yard Special; Williams Now Proclaimed Best Sprinter on Boards or Cinder.

New York, Feb. 18.—A score or so of the Olympic track and eld stars, including Percy Williams, who burned up the records Holland, will be on hand for the annual games of the New York thletic Club at Madison Square Garden to-night.

Interest centres in the 500-yard special in which Ray Barbuti nd Jimmy Ball are to take part. On the occasion in Holland, arbuti beat Ball, the Canadian, by inches to capture the Olympic 00-metre championship, the only flat race won by a United States unner.

Neither Barbuti nor Ball is an outstanding favorite to win to-night. Ball, accustomed to indoor running and a t baffled when it comes to taking e banked turns, hardly figures to be factor in a race where he must meet t only Barbuti, but Joe Tierney, orld's record holder at 500 yards; rnie McCafferty, the Holy Cross eshman flash, and Frank Cuhel, the wa quarter-miler and hurdler.

OT IN CONDITION

Barbuti enters the race without any mpetition behind him this season. has run a few exhibitions but that all. If he is in condition, of course, will be the man the others must at.

Tierney, the temperamental, won the ermeyer trophy in 1924 and again st year and can capture it outright if leads home the field to-night. He is not started in a scratch race this ason, confining his efforts to running the anchor leg for N.Y.A.C. relay ams.

Percy Williams is entered in a sixty-rd special against such stars as Wilrmuth, Quinn, Daley, Pappas, Elder, d Huyset. The Olympic double sprint ampion, never beaten in his major nning career, apparently is in top rm. He broke the world's record for ty metres in Brooklyn Saturday ght, flashing past the tape in six and ur-fifth seconds.

New York, Feb. 18—Percy Williams Vancouver set a new world's record winning the sixty-metre dash at the tropolitan track and field chamonships here Saturday night. The nadian Olympic hero did the disnce on an indoor track in 6 4-5 seds, clipping one-fifth of a second om the record established by Bob Allister in 1927.

The performance of Williams in the sh, a special event, overshadowed the t of the programme, which included 1,000 yards wherein Phil Edwards, other Canadian Olympic star, rened his metropolitan title, running New York University.

For the young comet from the Canian West, his race was mainly ainst time. He was off to a perfect rt, safely ahead of his opponents in enty yards and gaining with every ide, crossed in the finish line with panther-like leap a full three yards ead of William Bruder of the New-k A.C. Jimmy Pappas, a club mate Bruder, furnished the competitive erest in nearly nosing out Bruder.

CTORY EXPECTED

The fact that Williams is the best inter indoors or out has become so ll known since he began his invan of the eastern states, consistently ating everything offered at forty, ty-five and fifty yards, that his triph Saturday evening, at the longer tance was expected by everyone. vertheless, the crowd of 2,000 vociously applauded when the new rld's record was announced. It was served that the new time of 6 4-5 onds corresponded to the time for ty-five yards made by De Hart Hubrd in Boston in 1926, but since Wilms was not clocked as he whizzed st the sixty-five-yard mark, he will obably not be allowed that record.

Saturday night, for the second time his indoor career, Williams ran in t shoes and he had no starting cks to help him.

His performance was therefore ked upon as adding new lustre to of the briefest and brightest reds a sprinter has ever had. The t that he won by three yards still further credits him in that he had no opposition to induce greater effort.

DEMONSTRATES ABILITY

A summary of the Canadian star's present tour shows him beating the world's record at sixty metres and winning five other races, all he entered at Boston, Philadelphia and New York. He has clearly demonstrated his superiority over the best runners in the United States at any sprint distance, with or without spikes, on cinders or boards.

Phil Edwards showed how to run the 1,000 yards in defending his metropolitan title. In less than a lap after the start Edwards was so far out in front that the end was inevitable. It was merely a question of what time he would make. After a hard season and certain of keeping his title, Edwards decided to slow up in the stretch, where he had a comfortable lead of thirty-five yards and was clocked in 2.17.

His opponents, as those of Williams, staged a hot battle for second place, Murray Goldfish of the Millrose A.A. edging out Ken Smith, New York A.C.

FIELDING IS AWARDED CALL OVER MILLER

Victoria Fighter Outpoints Tacoma Boxer; Bradshaw Given a Draw

Even although he staged a wonderful comeback in the last round Petie Miller, of Tacoma, was forced to bow to the greater ring generalship and experience of Tommy Fielding, local junior lightweight, in their ten-round bout staged at the Sons of Canada Hall Saturday night. Fielding was awarded the decision by Referee Gil Martin, of Vancouver.

For nine rounds Fielding outboxed his opponent but in the tenth Miller threw caution to the wind and slugged it with the Victoria fighter and received a big ovation from the fans for his gameness. The Tacoma boy failed to show anything but a wicked right hand that he landed on Fielding about three times during the entire fight. In the fifth round Miller caught Fielding unawares with a terrific right hook to the chin and it could be easily seen it hurt the Victoria boy.

In the last round the two fighters slugged it out and although Fielding took a couple of nasty blows he managed to come back in the last minute with a two-fisted attack. The referee's decision was well received by the fans.

BRADSHAW IN DRAW

Charlie Bradshaw earned a draw with Benny Wendall, of Bellingham, in the semi-wind-up four-round bout. For three rounds Wendall had the advantage and although Bradshaw made a great comeback in the last round the visiting fighter was entitled to the decision. Twice during the fight Wendall landed left hooks to Bradshaw's jaw to send him to the canvas for no counts. In the last round Bradshaw opened a nasty cut over Wendall's right eye.

Wing Hay, the fighting Chinaman, had no trouble in winning the decision over Danny Pastro. Hay kept away from his hard-hitting opponent and won his fight at long range. Pastro hardly landed one telling punch throughout the four rounds.

WON EASILY

Teddy Beales, of Victoria, had no trouble winning the decision from the Fighting Warhoop, of Bellingham. The Indian fighter absorbed considerable punishment but he proved game and was willing to mix it throughout the four rounds. The Bellingham fighter was at a considerable disadvantage being outweighed by many pounds.

The bouts were refereed by Gil Martin, of Vancouver, who proved to be about the most efficient third man seen here for some time.

Detroit, Feb. 18.—Detroit and Hamilton of the Canadian Professional League pushed ten shots into the nets Saturday night, Detroit winning by 8-2.

Tommy Filmore, Fraser and Goodfellow all collected a pair of points in the orgy of scoring.

City Defeats Dockers By Large Score

First Division Champs Hand Esquimalt 7-2 Lacing in Peden Cup Game

Losers Go to Pieces in Last Half Allowing City to Run in Five Goals

Playing on a field covered with mud, which soon made the ball slippery and heavy, and hard to control, Victoria City, champions of the First Division, defeated Esquimalt 7-2 in the Peden Cup soccer match played at Beacon Hill on Saturday afternoon. After so long a lay off on account of the weather and taking into consideration the condition of the playing field, the teams put up a very creditable exhibition.

Although they were playing uphill with the wind against them Esquimalt succeeded in taking the lead, John Watt booting the ball past Bridges, after the City goalie had misjudged a centre by Burnett. The City soon evened the count, Burns scoring on a centre from Cameron.

Playing see-sawed from one end of the field to the other with both goalies being tested frequently. Just before half-time the City took the lead on Preston's goal.

DOCKERS PRESS

With the slope and wind in their favor the dockers pressed hotly for the first ten minutes of the second half, but their forwards were a little too anxious in front of the net, and as a result many fine chances were passed up.

Victoria City went two goals in the lead on a fine effort by Tommy Smith. Still fighting hard, Esquimalt again got within one goal of their opponent's when Wagland sent in a high shot that beat Bridges all the way.

SCORE FROM PENALTY

The City's next goal came as the result of a penalty awarded against Banks for hands. Preston found no trouble scoring from the kick, and from this stage on the City had things pretty much their own way. Before the time Darrell Bissell had scored two more goals and Burns one for the league champions.

Robb refereed.

The teams were as follows:

Victoria City—Bridges, Margison, Tuckwell, Stofer, Preston, McBay, Cameron, D. Bissell, Burns, Smith and Glancy.

Esquimalt—Bromley, Sweeney, Joe Watt, Nicol, Stewart, Hosmer, Burnett, Banks, John Watt, Wagland and Collier.

Minor Hockey League Results

San Francisco, Feb. 18.—San Francisco's ice hockey team yesterday won a surprise 3 to 2 victory over Oakland. Fans had expected Oakland to win easily.

Smokey Harris and Ganton Scott scored for San Francisco in the first period, and Tom Westwick in the second. Oakland staged a last minute rally, scoring both points just before the end of the game. Hub Dafoe and Duke Riley made the tallies.

Duluth, Minn., Feb. 18. — Tulsa scored a 5-2 victory over Duluth here Saturday night in an American Association hockey game, featured by a fist fight between La France of the Oilers and Bergl of the Hornets. Police were called to stop the fight when fans rushed to the ice.

Minneapolis, Feb. 18.—Minneapolis defeated St. Paul 5-1 in a hotly contested American Hockey Association game here Saturday night Minneapolis overwhelmed their Twin City rivals in the third period, scoring three goals.

Rossland, Feb. 18. — Rossland and Trail senior hockey teams, who have cinched the West Kootenay play-off series, battled to a 1-1 draw in the last game but one of the league series here Saturday night. No overtime was played as the game had no bearing on the play-offs. It was a good exhibition of hockey, and boosted Rossland's hopes of victory over Trail in the play-offs which will begin probably this week.

Winnipeg Golfer Heads Association

Toronto, Feb. 18.—C. E. Harvey, Winnipeg, was elected president of the Royal Canadian Golf Association at the annual meeting here Saturday. The selection of the Jasper Park, Alberta, course for the amateur championship, August 19-24, and other recommendations of the executive committee were approved. It was decided to eliminate the consolation events in connection with the amateur championship this year and to increase the prize money for the open tournament. The venue of the open championship and the Wellington trophy matches was left for decision to the executive, which will also select a vice-president and secretary-treasurer.

Intermediate Rugby Teams Play to Tie

College and University School Battle to Scoreless Draw on Slippery Field

"Blinkie" Tisdall, University Half, Taken to Hospital With Broken Leg

In a game marred by the painful accident to Arthur Tisdall, University School half-back, Victoria College and University School mudlarks wallowed to a scoreless draw in the opening game of the Intermediate rugby league second half schedule at Mount Tolmie on Saturday. The recent thaw and rain had put a grease-like surface on the field which prevented any accurate passing and made running exceedingly difficult.

From the opening of the game, the Mount Tolmie boys rushed College into their own twenty-five, but the blue and gold men bucked their opponents back to centre. Gardiner, University School wing three, took the ball from the loose and carried it again to the College line, but again the Craigdarroch lads halted the attack. Foot by foot they carried the slippery ball to centre where their opponents again started an offensive rush.

BREAKS LEG

"Blinkie" Tisdall secured the ball and started off on a run. Two college players sandwiched him with a heavy tackle and all three went down. When the whistle blew, Tisdall remained on the ground with a broken leg. He was taken to the Jubilee Hospital and the College dropped a man to even up the teams.

For the next fifteen minutes, University School hemmed College in their own twenty-five but heavy tackling on the latter's part and uncertain passing by the attackers held the boys from going over.

Godwin, of College, took the ball from the scrum and made a twenty yard gain before passing to Hume, who carried play to the University "two-bit" line. From the scrum, College secured the ball and forced it to the line where Townsend, University full-back, touched it down for a twenty-five yard kick.

PRESS HARD

The University School followed down on the kick and again forced College to the line. Hard breaks and the slippery ball prevented them going over and the half-time whistle blew with them still on the offensive.

The University team certainly dominated the entire half and deserved to score but luck held them back.

For the first five minutes after the rest interval, the Mount Tolmie boys again held College on their line, but although they forced the ball over between the posts, Bruce Lowe, of College, got his hands to it and robbed them of a try.

Shortly after, Gardiner was awarded a free kick, when Maconachie played off-side. The slippery ball failed to reach the posts and College went down to the University end on a rush.

COLLEGE ON ATTACK

For almost fifteen minutes the boys in blue and gold held the Mount Tolmie men on their own line. However, the University defence proved stable, and College was unable to get over.

McHmoyl broke away on a dangerous dribble to take the ball to within a few feet of the line but was halted by a massed defensive move by University backs.

For the remainder of the game, the two teams skidded about centre without making any dangerous sallies.

Considering the condition of the ground, both teams put up excellent games, and, although University certainly deserved to score in the first half, College retaliated with good offensive work in the second.

up as follows:

University School—Townsend; Fitz, Gardiner and Mercer, Tisdall and Brinkley; Cornwall, Peard, Hammond, White, Senkler, Firmstone, George, Mortimer and Hayward.

College—Raynor; Ruttan, Ellis, McIlmoyl and Hume; Godwin and Lowe; Hall, Maconachie, Young, Walton, Rogers, Monteski, Lendrum and D'Arcy.

JIM JEFFRIES

His Own Story

As Told to HUGH FULLERTON

CHAPTER XXXII

HARDSHIPS

That night was the saddest and most anxious of my life. I was almost helpless from the blood poisoning and the injured leg and the news that mother was sick—and my brother and I there in the far wilderness, was the crowning blow.

The packers had not proceeded to the main camp. As soon as they found that message they dropped their packs and hurried back to bring us the news.

"John,' said I, "we must get out of here quick. We must reach Seward and catch the first boat."

"My God, Jim, you can't travel on that leg!" he said. "You may kill yourself."

"I'll be ready to start in the morning," I said.

We started at daybreak. I was traveling, with my leg in that condition, and it took us all day to get to the middle camp, where we spent the night. The next day, by desperate effort, we managed to reach our main camp at lower Kanal Lake, where we found the messengers waiting for us.

FEARS THE WORST

Those two men gave us the message and my heart sank. It was dated September 2, and we did not receive it until October 2, just a month later. I knew that mother never would have permitted a message to be sent unless she was seriously ill—and feared the worst.

The United States Government had sent those men into the wilderness with orders to find me and deliver the message. The cost was $308—but it would have been worth ten times that had it reached us in time.

The men had been on our trail more than ten days and had traveled nearly 400 miles over lakes and rivers, hunting us.

"We've got to get that boat, John," I said.

REACH GOVERNMENT CACHE

We remained at the lower Kanal camp until 2 o'clock in the morning when the light was commencing to come, and by hard rowing, and by taking the shorter route along the other side of the lake from the one we had come up, we crossed the lakes in a day and reached a government cache, erected and supplied with food and fuel so that persons who are lost or in danger may be saved.

The sign in the cabin said:

"Eat all you want, but don't take anything with you.

"U.S. Government."

The cabins, one filled with food, especially canned goods, the other a place to sleep, are beautifully located, but we were too tired and my leg was too painful for us to admire scenery much. We slept there while recuperating and started again at daybreak, up the Kanal, which is about eighteen miles long. We had four terrible days getting through. One day we made less than two miles, as it was impossible for us to row a boat against the current. We had to get out, wade and two the boat behind us. We were forced to cross the river four times, and each time we crossed we lost ground. Once the current drove us back more than a mile.

PILES OF SALMON

Piles of salmon, dead and dying, were all along the banks, sometimes a foot or two high, for these fish, coming up from the sea, spawn and die where the young are born. The alders by the riverside were full of bear which would scrape big piles of the dead and dying salmon from the water, leaving them to ripen, and return to feast on them.

We finally reached upper Kanal Lake and rowed across it and reached "Mile 71"—the government stations are marked that way—and this was the station from which we had started into the wilderness.

Strangely enough, my poisoned leg was better. The wading in the clear, ice-cold water, hour after hour, instead of making the leg worse, seemed to have washed the poison out of it. It was still painful and I limped, but the danger from blood poisoning was over.

IN DESPERATE HURRY

We were in a desperate hurry to reach Seward, and hastened forward as fast as we could go, having our packs and trophies sent after us. We were not certain what day the boat for Seattle sail, and drove as hard as possible to the railroad—and finally reached Seward to find that the boat for Seattle had left forty-eight hours before. It had been held for two days in the hope that we had received the message early and might show up at any minute.

MOTHER IS DEAD

We had to wait at Seward four days without news from mother, and those were anxious hours. We telegraphed from Seward that we were coming as rapidly as possible—and reached Seattle to receive telegrams announcing that mother had died—and our journey was vain.

COMEDY STORY FEATURE FILM AT CAPITOL

"Beware of Bachelors" Provides Plenty of Laughs; Splendid Cast Assembled

Stage Attractions Include Dancers, Singers and Concert Orchestra

"Beware of Bachelors" is one of those rare combinations of slapstick raillery and real heart interest. It kept the Capitol Theatre audience in an uproar this afternoon from beginning to end of the performance.

There is a delightful aroma of youth about "Beware of Bachelors." The tangles in the callow doctor's matrimonial affairs might have happened, and no doubt are happening, in many a first-year lovenest.

It all begins with the over-ardent interest his lady patients took in the doctor, and in his evident appreciation of that interest. It is his high and mighty attitude about the matter that causes his bride to rebel.

And what a rebellion! She adopts her husband's tactics, and what with an amorous and ladylike French perfumer, a giant butter-and-egg man, and others, she finds life anything but monotonous. The lady patients are put to rout—hubby is in such a state of uncertainty that his trade falls off, as well as his avoirdupois—and both are at last more than willing to begin all over again.

THE STAGE

The stage attractions at the Capitol Theatre for this week include, Krause and Evans, two acrobatic dancers, Reoderick and Artois the well-known harmony girls in song selections, along with Moss and Negrande, the singing musicians. The Capitol stage bands and Jack Reed, the singing master of ceremonies, will complete the vaudeville.

Lois Wilson Is Star In Picture At the Playhouse

Popular Lady Has Leading Role in "Sally's Shoulders" Here For One Week

Presenting Lois Wilson in one of the most appealing roles of her career as Sally, the young girl who has the care and support of her ungrateful family laid upon her by fate, "Sally's Shoulders" will open to-night at the Playhouse Theatre for a week's run.

Praise for the fidelity with which Beatrice Burton's story has been depicted upon the screen in this FBO drama of everyday life, has been general from the thousands who read the narrative as it appeared serially in many newspapers of the country.

Director Lynn Shores has taken no liberties with the absorbing tale, as is sometimes evident when popular stories are filmed, and the cast supporting Lois Wilson is of exceptional merit, including Huntley Gordon, George Hackathorne, Edythe Chapman and Lucille Williams.

"PEP" WILL BE STAGE SHOW AT THE COLISEUM

Popular Stock Company in Splendid Show Starring Leitch and Webber

"Freedom of the Press" Will Be Title of Strong Screen Attraction All Week

With Raymond "Toby" Leitch, leader of the company, back in his red-haired wig, his most popular guise, the Coliseum Players will present at the Coliseum Theatre this evening at 8.30 o'clock, a stage production entitled "Pep." Mr. Leitch says that this show has been enthusiastically received in all centres where it has been presented. "Pep" will be presented every evening with matinee performances on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

THE PRINCIPALS

Each and every one of the players is now popular and well liked by Coliseum patrons. Mr. Leitch is a character comedian too well known to have very much said about him and has proved his worth in his three shows in Victoria. Without any unnecessary buffoonery, he is able to keep an audience in uproars, the real test of a comic actor. Miss Leone Webber, leading lady with the company, is a dainty, refined and charming actress, who has won a deep place in the hearts of Coliseum patrons by her splendid performances. As pretty as she is charming, Miss Webber is gifted with a lovely accent, which she uses to advantage. Her diction also is delightful and when she appears on the stage she is greeted with enthusiastic applause.

THE CAST

Miss Ada Daniels is an actress of no mean merit and can hold her own in any role, whether it be a gentle, old-fashioned lady or a modern vampire, while Miss Esther Todd has proved that she can act the role of the twentieth century flapper with great vigor.

Among the male members of the cast the honors for looks must go to Forrest Taylor. Tall, handsome and debonnair, Mr. Taylor is a fine figure on the stage and always can be depended upon to give a good performance. Paul Wallace is one of the younger members of the cast and Leon Cluff and Lorus Bagsley are also popular. Mr. Cluff for a number of years played the role of the Jewish father in Anne Nichol's famous stage success, "Abie's Irish Rose."

Famous Picture "Dawn" Showing At the Columbia

Much Discussed Story of Nurse Edith Cavell's War Work on Screen

"Dawn," the picture over which so much controversy was raised and which was first banned and then licensed by the British Board of Censors, is the attraction at the Columbia Theatre to-day. The film graphically portrays the colorful and adventurous life of the war nurse, Edith Cavell, whose execution shocked the entire world. It is based upon a story of her life by Capt. Reginald Berkeley and was made into a photoplay by Herbert Wilcox, one of Europe's foremost directors.

The production was over two years in the making and each scene was re-enacted in the exact spot in Belgium where the tragic events occurred. Mr. Wilcox received the wholehearted support and approval of the Bedgium Government in making the photodrama and it is largely due to government aid that the finished production rings so true to life.

FAMOUS STARS SEEN IN FILM AT DOMINION

Although Not Taking Leading Roles Headliners Shown at Luncheon in "Show People"

Story of Back Stage Life, Here For Three Days, Stars Marion Davies and Haines

With five of the cleverest comedians in Hollywood in the cast and with many famous stars, including Charlie Chaplin, Norma Talmadge, William S. Hart and Douglas Fairbanks playing themselves, as atmosphere, the new Marion Davies-William Haines co-starring picture "Show People," now playing at the Dominion Theatre, is, thus far, the most unique comedy of the season.

Miss Davies, through her work in many pictures, has won the title of America's leading comedienne. The role of the little extra girl who comes to Hollywood and attains sudden stardom offers her an excellent opportunity not only to satirize her friends and acquaintances and poke gentle fun at Hollywood, but to develop an entirely new screen character.

POPULAR STAR

Haines, who never went the route of the comedy studios himself, is, nevertheless, ideal as the slapstick artist who graduates from the comedy lots in time to save "Peggy," the heroine, from the fate of the "up-stage" actress, which, as even Hollywood will admit, is sometimes a quick and fatal one.

Polly Moran, who has stolen scenes from every star in the picture business because of her comedy antics finds herself up against stiff competition with the two leads, but plays her role as Miss Davies maid in her "ritzy" days, in her usual hilarious manner.

Colwood

At a recent executive meeting of the Esquimalt Rural Nursing Service the following report was presented by the nurse in charge: Schools visited, Albert Head, Colwood, Langford, Luxton and Happy Valley; 142 school children inspected, eighty-four home school visits, sixteen social service visits, two pre-natal visits, eight health talks given, eighty-four telephone consultations, three minor accidents, forty-four nursing visits, one child taken to dentist, and one child taken to see her doctor in Victoria.

The monthly meeting of the Senior W.A. to St. John's Church was held Wednesday afternoon, February 13, in Colwood Hall, there being a good attendance. A committee was formed to purchase material for a sale of work. After business the members adjourned to the home of Mrs. C. Matheson, Sooke Road, where tea was served.

Mr and Mrs. C. Gumenson of Cubic, Sask., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Bristow, Sooke Road.

The monthly meeting of the Colwood Women's Institute will be held on Wednesday afternoon, February 20, at the home of Mrs. R. Murray, Albert Head Road. The speaker for the afternoon will be Mrs. J. D. Gordon, president of the Provincial Board of Women's Institutes.

Members desirous of transportation are asked to be at "Nightingale" at 2.15 p.m.

Well contested badminton games were witnessed Thursday evening in Colwood Hall, when the Willows Badminton Club visited the Belmont Club. The game resulted in a win for the home team, the score being 14 for Belmont and Willows having 10. In the scores visitors' names appear first:

FARRAR SINGS ON THURSDAY

Famous Prima Donna to Appear at Royal Victoria Theatre For One Night

Great as are the rewards of opera for singers who have made a success, there is yet to be found a true artist who is content to spend his or her entire career upon the stage. They all realize that the true test of their art is found not in the opera but in the concert room and more particularly in the singing of songs. As the highest and most exacting form of instrumental music is found in the trio and the quartette, so the highest and most exacting form of singing is demanded in concert. In opera the great orchestra, the scenery, the costumes, the lights and the dramatic interest of the work itself all combine to give aid to the singer. But standing alone on the stage with only the piano as a helpmate is a proposition of entirely different character.

True artist that she is, Geraldine Farrar long since realized that if she was to become the complete artist, she must venture nito concert work. With the illustrious example of her teacher, Lilli Lehmann, before her, and with Lehmann's aid, encouragement and co-operation, Miss Farrar has won for herself a reputation in concert as great as that which she has in opera.

The natural versatility of her talent has helped her much. She is at home in the suave, fluent melodies of the classical masters of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. Songs rich in romance appeal strongly to her imagination, and being a modern of the moderns she has deep sympathy for the interesting songs of modern Frenchmen. Moreover, she has found much assistance in her natural gift for languages. Her French and Italian are faultless. She has all the elegance of style called for by modern French song writers and has the fiery passion demanded by the Italians.

She is indefatigable in searching for new or forgotten or unusual songs, and her programmes are models of their kind for unconventional yet sustained interest. Miss Farrar will appear at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Thursday, February 21.

ELECTION DATE TALK

St. John, N.B., Feb. 18—Charles M. Price of Hampstead, England, who arrived here yesterday aboard the steamship Montrose, stated that while in mid-ocean he had received a wireless advising him that the British general election would be held on May 23. Mr. Price said the information had been wirelessed by his uncle, D. E. Price, who will be Conservative candidate for Marylebone in the coming election.

ORIENT TRADE AWAITS CANADA

J. J. Page of Western Canada Flour Mills Says Vigorous Action Necessary

Canada has reached the point where she must go after the Oriental trade vigorously, according to J. J. Page of Toronto, general manager of the Western Canada Flour Mills Company Limited, who was in the city over the week-end.

Strategically, British Columbia was admirably placed in this respect, he added, in commending the decision of the business interests of the coast to organize a trade mission to the Orient this Spring. He was fully in accord with the views expressed relative to Canada and Oriental trade before the Chamber of Commerce last week by T. S. Dixon and R. D. Williams, of the Vancouver Board of Trade, under the auspices of which the forthcoming trade tour to the Far East is being arranged.

The buisness offering in the Orient, however, would be materially affected by economic conditions until the purchasing power of the Orient showed improvement. The increased volume of grain export to China was an encouraging feature of Canada trade, but, for a lengthy period, it will be a fluctuating factor, dependent upon the price of grain, said Mr. Page.

Owing to the small purchasing power per capita in the Chinese market, when wheat in Canada rises above a certain level, demands is in the Orient will decline, in his opinion.

There was a good demand for Canadian flour in the Philippines and shipments were also going to the Straits Settlements and elsewhere in Eastern Asia.

A market for Canadian grain was also being developed, in New Zealand, where the hard wheat of Canada was required to mill the finest kind of flour.

While in the city Mr. Page conferred with Russell Ker, the interests of the Brackman-Ker Milling Company being closely allied with those of the Western Canada Flour Mills Company.

ROBBERIES BRING PROTEST

Vancouver, Feb. 18—"Is this a system?" demanded T. Matsuoka of police officers here when reporting a theft Sunday.

"For the last three Sundays a robber has entered my house. Each time he has taken two pairs of blankets and a bedspread. I want the habit stopped."

WASHINGTON DEATH INVESTIGATED

Walla Walla, Wash., Feb. 18—C. P. Pollard, fifty-nine, was killed by the discharge of his shotgun at his home at Prescott yesterday. Relatives state they know no reason for suicide. Pollard had been a rural mail carrier out of Prescott for many years.

Quick relief for COLDS since 1889

How I stop colds quick

"I'm not a movie-star or a radio soprano. And I wouldn't recognize a cold germ if I met one. I am just an everyday sort of girl, more like the millions of people who read the newspapers than most of the famous folks whose pictures appear in the ads.

"Because so many of my friends recommended it, I now carry the handy white box of GROVE'S BROMO QUININE in my purse. I use it for headaches. I take it for colds. And it's a mighty good laxative besides.

"As soon as I get one of those uneasy, achy feelings, or my head is stopped-up, I don't wait. Promptly, I take care of myself with GROVE'S BROMO QUININE. And it works."... Outselling all others, this is the world's leading cold remedy. Get it, by emphasizing GROVE'S, when asking for GROVE'S BROMO QUININE. Price 30c.

"Coughed for 13 years, but it was stopped by your marvellous medicine", asserts another.

Scores of original letters in our files attest the unique power of "Buckley's" in instantly relieving Coughs and Colds of all kinds.

For severe colds accompanied by fever, headache or neuralgia, take LAXFYRIN and Buckley's Mixture and quick relief will follow. 353

STATION NOTES

GENERAL MOTORS' FAMILY PARTY

Patrick Conway and his band will be the featured artists for the General Motors' Family Party broadcast through a Coast-to-Coast hook-up of NBC System stations to-night from 6.30 to 7.30, Pacific standard time.

Pacific Coast stations KHQ, Spokane; KOMO, Seattle; KGW, Portland; KGO, Oakland; KPO, San Francisco, and KFI, Los Angeles, will broadcast the General Motors' Family Party.

"EMPIRE BUILDERS"

The expedition of Captain George Clark and Captain Merriweather Lewis in the administration of President Jefferson, will be re-created for radio listeners in two broadcasts of "The Empire Builders" through a Coast-to-Coast network of the NBC System, the first of which will commence to-night at 7.30 o'clock, Pacific standard time.

In the first of these two programmes devoted to Clark and Lewis will be depicted the start of the expedition and its arrival on the West Coast three weeks after their ship had started back after giving the explorers up for lost.

Pacific Coast stations KHQ, Spokane; KOMO, Seattle; KGW, Portland; KGO, Oakland; KPO, San Francisco, and KFI, Los Angeles, will broadcast "The Empire Builders."

"VOICE OF FIRESTONE"

Melodies of Spain will be sung and played in the opening group of selections on the "Voice of Firestone" programme, broadcast through stations associated with the NBC System to-night from 9 to 9.30, Pacific standard time.

The group begins with a Waldteufel number, "Espana," interpreted by the thirty-two piece Firestone orchestra under Max Dolin. Easton Kent, tenor, is scheduled to sing "La Paloma," Yradier's universally popular "Dove Song." One of the most notable songs in Bizet's "Carmen," the "Toreador Song," will be contributed by the Firestone Choristers, accompanied by the orchestra.

This "Voice of Firestone" programme, which originated in the San Francisco studios of the NBC, will be broadcast through stations KHQ, Spokane; KOMO, Seattle; KGW, Portland; KGO, Oakland; KPO, San Francisco; KFI, Los Angeles; KSL Salt Lake City and KOA Denver.

"PLANTATION ECHOES"

Echoes of the Southland will reverberate throughout the West to-night from 9.30 to 10 o'clock when stations of the NBC System join in the weekly broadcast of the "Plantation Echoes" programme.

Hospitable Judge Chandler, a typical son of the South who is the host for these radio parties every Monday night, will again invite his guests to "pull up their chairs and make themselves comfortable." In his mansion "somewhere South of the Mason and Dixon Line," the Judge will have assembled a varied group of entertainers, including Jerry and his Dixie Melodists, Rufus and little Tambo.

"Plantation Echoes" will be broadcast, through stations KGW, Portland; KSL, Salt Lake City, and KOA, Denver.

SLUMBER HOUR

Max Dolin and the National Concert Orchestra, assisted by Gwynfi Jones, tenor, will broadcast an hour of slumber music through stations associated with the NBC System to-night from 10 to 11 o'clock, Pacific Standard Time.

"When the Shadows Fall," one of Max Dolin's most popular compositions, and his "Echoes of the Orient" will also be heard. The former will be sung by Jones.

The Slumber Hour will be broadcast throughout stations KSL, Salt Lake City and KOA, Denver.

AN HOUR OF CLASSICS

Rossini, Monckton, Schubert, Mozart, Beethoven, Rubenstein and Mendelsohn are among the better-known composers whose classical works will contribute to the nightly hour with the Sunset broadcasters this evening. The Sunset Concert Orchestra will play over CFCT, Victoria's radio station, and open the hour between 6.20 and 7.20 o'clock with the overture, "William Tell." A selection from the musical play, "The Quaker Girl," will be given, and two works by Schubert are included "Moment Musical" and the first "Marche Militaire." Among other classics are "Marche Alla Turca," "Alla Polacca de la Serenade," "The Dew Is Sparkling" and "On Wings of Song," by the above masters.

Dance music will prevail over CFCT from 7.30 to 8 o'clock to-night, and radio enthusiasts will hear the Empress Hotel orchestra.

CLEAN KIDNEYS BY DRINKING LOTS OF WATER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic tinge, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. (Advt.)

DOO-DADS PULL SURPRISE WIN OVER STUDENTS

Sunday School Champions Win Title By 36-26 Victory Over High School

C.P.S. and J.B.A.A. Teams Are Eliminated From Island Knockout League

Doo-Dads, intermediate "B" Sunday school hoop champions, won the right to meet the Up-Island champions by defeating Victoria High School 36-26 at the Y.M.C.A. Saturday night. The High School were greatly weakened by the loss of three of their regulars, but the winners deserved their victory on the evening's play.

In the opening period the Doo-Dads had trouble penetrating the five-man defence of the students so they relied on long shots. The baskets at the Y.M.C.A. just seemed to suit Eddie Gibson and Jack Caddell, for they sunk the ball from all angles. At the rest interval the boys from First United held a 24-13 lead.

INCREASE LEAD

Early in the second half the winners increased their lead and then held on to the ball. The students, with a sixteen-point lead facing them, made a determined fight but were only able to cut it down to ten.

The teams were as follows:

Doo-Dads—Gibson 14, Menzies, McCollough, Caddell 9, Johnston 6, McKenzie 7 and Brown.

High School—Forbes 12, Patrick, Galger 2, Hill 5, Chapman 4, Smith and Fraser 3.

A GREAT BASKET

Ken Waites's Crescents pulled a surprise on the C.P.S. by handing them a 36-35 defeat, thereby eliminating the lumbermen from the Island Knockout League. Lloyd Jones scored the winning basket with 40 seconds to go. The winners held the lead practically all the way and at half time led 20-18.

In all due respect to the C.P.S. it must be said they were far from being at top strength, as they were without the services of three of their regulars. Early in the first half the lumbermen also lost their skipper, Gordon Wooldridge, due to a split finger. Tommy de Macedo refereed.

The teams were:

Crescents—Low 6, L. Jones 18, Spence, McConnell 10, Jones, Temple 2 and Thorpe.

C.P.S.—MacEachern 12, Hocking 8, Butler 12, Davie 2, Pagerburg 1 and Wooldridge.

BAYS DEFEATED

Victoria College handed J.B.A.A. their walking ticket from the Island Knockout in the form of a 40-15 defeat. Rogers, White and Foubister were the bright lights for the winners, while Parfitt was outstanding for the losers. A LeMarquand refereed.

The teams were:

College—Bissell 5, Patterson 5, Rogers 12, Chapman 4, White 8, Gilmor and Foubister.

J.B.A.A.—Bull 3, Gandy 1, Wright, Moses 1, Smith, Passmore 3, Parfitt 7 and McLachlan.

An Irish private was called before the adjutant of his regiment, who had received complaints that the Irishman had not written home for years. The common excuse, "Can't write," was offered. "Can't write!" said the officer, seizing his pen. "Well, just dictate while I write your letter." "We have the best commanding officer in the service," declared Pat. "H'm!" mused the adjutant, looking up. "Well?" "The Sergeant-Major is like a father to the men." "Anything else?" asked the adjutant. "Kindly excuse bad writing and spelling!" added Pat.

The respectable-looking man indignantly denied that he had been drunk; he had merely eaten too many good things and was upset.

"What have you got to say, constable?" asked the magistrate to the man who arrested him.

"Well, y'worship, when I woke him up he took me for his wife, and apologized for coming home late. He tried to kiss me, and wished me many happy returns of the day. Then he told me that Christmas comes but once a week."

MILK PLANS ARE OPPOSED

Independents Here to Protest Any Interference With Vancouver Business

With proposals for controlling the Vancouver milk situation already before it, the Government will hear immediately from the interests which are opposed to legal interference with the dairy business.

E. G. Sherwood, Vancouver, independent milk dealer, came here this morning as head of a delegation which will meet the Cabinet to-night or tomorrow to protest against the reported proposals of the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association for new plans to handle the whole milk problem.

While Mr. Sherwood and his associates have not yet seen a draft of the legislation proposed by the association to the Government, they are opposed on principle to any scheme which would allow interference with private operations. If the new milk bill contemplates the same provisions as were advanced in the Legislature before it will be entirely objectionable to the independent dealers, it was explained.

Any such scheme, it is asserted, would mean that Vancouver consumers would be saddled with all the burdens of the co-operators, for any control must mean the control of fluid milk, since butter is controlled by world markets.

This Island Proves Still Richer, Says Vancouver Financier

The bleak and rugged northern tip of Vancouver Island, which has been considered one of the most uninviting parts of the Coast, is now opening up as one of the richest mineral areas in the West, according to William Sugarman, Vancouver financier, who is in Victoria to-day.

Mr. Sugarman said that at the Coast Copper, the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company had now proved for this Island the existence of large and very high grade copper deposits and that this development is being expanded with the work now under way on the Quatsino Copper-gold, which has the continuation of the Coast Copper's main Old Sport vein.

"Results at these properties, which are working the backbone of the Island, as it were, prove that this Island is even more richly endowed than has been thought," Mr. Sugarman said. "The Old Sport vein is 65 feet wide and the assays on the surface run 3 ounces silver and 20.14 per cent copper, while at the depths of 1,000 to 2,800 feet the ore runs into bornite, which is the much sought after copper sulphide. On the Merry Widow claims of the Quatsino the vein has been found to be 200 feet wide on the surface."

Two Charged After Pooley Home Attempt

C. Dawley and L. Vipond Face Count of Breaking and Entering

Apprehended in Nanaimo Saturday; Dawley Fined on Driving Charge

Clifford Dawley and Leslie Vipond, alleged by police to have been connected with the believed hold-up attempt on the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Pooley, 1337 Rockland Avenue, last Wednesday night, were charged in City Police Court this morning with breaking and entering the Pooley home by night with intent to commit an indictable offence.

P. R. Leighton, counsel for the accused, elected trial by higher court. The preliminary hearing was set for Friday.

When he was convicted on a charge of driving an automobile to the common danger on Government Street early Wednesday morning, Dawley was fined $100, with the option of one month's imprisonment, by Magistrate George Jay. The charge arose out of a collision at the intersection of Government and Yates Streets.

ARRESTED IN NANAIMO.

Dawley and Vipond were arrested Saturday night by Detectives William Stark and Marcus Phipps, who apprehended the pair in Nanaimo after they had been held by the Provincial Police there. The prisoners were brought back to the city that night.

A line-up was held at police headquarters this morning for purposes of identification.

The attempted robbery or hold-up at the Pooley home last Wednesday night caused considerable interest in the city in that it was made while a party was in progress at the house. Screams of the cook, who saw a strange man in the kitchen, resulted in their flight while the butler of the household gave chase.

Both of the accused are Victorians.

$100 FINE

Imposing the $100 fine on Dawley for driving to the common danger, Magistrate Jay remarked upon the number of accidents which resulted from fast and furious driving at early hours of the morning.

Dawley was apprehended on this occasion by Constable Benjamin Acreman, who testified in court that the accused had driven northward along Government Street, past Johnson Street, at about thirty-five or forty miles an hour. A few minutes later, at 3.10 a.m., the accused's car had come back along Government Street and had made the turn eastward along Yates Street with no hand signal from the driver. It had crashed into the front of a taxi car which was proceeding northward along Government Street at the intersection.

The impact had knocked the taxi car across the street and the car driven by the accused had turned a complete circle and come to a stop opposite the Columbia Theatre, said the constable.

THREE OF B.C. CABINET ILL

Tolmie, Shelly and Atkinson Absent; Budget May Be Delayed

The Provincial Government found itself temporarily crippled to-day by the illness of Premier Tolmie, Hon. W. C. Shelly, Minister of Finance, and Hon. William Atkinson, Minister of Agriculture.

Premier Tolmie will not return to his office for several days on account of a cold which has confined him to his bed. It is not certain that he will be at his office or in the House this week. He apparently had just recovered from a cold when he was taken ill again. While his indisposition is not regarded as serious, his physician has insisted that he remain in bed for some days in order to cure it.

Mr. Shelly also contracted a cold at the week-end in Vancouver and on his return here to-day was obliged to take to his bed. While he had planned to make his Budget speech Tuesday, it is expected this event will have to be postponed and the sessional programme rearranged accordingly. There is enough routine business on the order paper to occupy the House for a few days until Mr. Shelly recovers.

Mr. Atkinson will probably return to work to-morrow or next day after a cold which kept him out of the House for the last few days of last week.

WILL DECIDE HOOP TITLES

Island basketball play-offs for this week are announced as follows:

February 22, senior "B" championship—Keating vs. Duncan at Duncan. Winner to play Shawnigan on home floor.

February 23—at Victoria:

Senior "B" ladies—Fidelis vs. Shawnigan.

FINED $300 ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Convicted on a charge of supplying liquor to an interdicted person, John Norton, of Sidney, was fined $300 with the option of three months' imprisonment by Magistrate George Jay in Provincial Police Court this morning. Stuart Henderson appeared for the accused. Evidence for the prosecution was given by Constable W. G. Hadley, Provincial Police, A. Delidal, of the Government Liquor Store at Sidney, and A. G. Graham.

Hurried to Meet Lady; Fined $15.00

Because Andrew Spouse "had to meet the young lady at 10.30" he was driving his automobile too fast down Yates Street hill last Tuesday night, he told the magistrate when charged in City Police Court this morning with driving to the common danger.

It cost Spouse $15 for being in a hurry to meet "the young lady," the magistrate commenting that "if you had started five minutes earlier to meet the lady you wouldn't have had to go that speed."

Constable Peris Atkinson, who apprehended the accused, testified the latter was going about forty miles an hour down the hill which was frosty at the time.

NORTH SHORE ASKS TO BE COMPENSATED

Delegation Seeks Payment From Government For P.G.E. Abandonment

North Vancouver City and District asked the Cabinet to-day to compensate them for the closing of the North Shore section of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. A delegation from the two municipalities urged the Government to hold up its legislation ratifying an agreement between the P.G.E. and West Vancouver until some provision for compensating them had been arranged.

In general, the Government was asked to grant to North Vancouver city and district compensation equal to that allowed to West Vancouver for the cessation of railway service. In particular it was asked that the intermunicipal highway connection Marine Drive, West Vancouver, with Lonsdale Avenue be improved to the same standard as Marine Drive with a width of twenty feet at the cost of the Government. The expense, it is estimated, would run to about $94,000.

The abandonment of the railway service, it was explained, would cause all West Vancouver business to move by bus over North Vancouver highways. North Vancouver thus would be put to heavy expense for the upkeep of these roads, as those already existing would be inadequate.

CLEAN TEETH DO NOT DECAY

Dr. W. Russell Tells Gyro Club of Preventive Dentistry

The progress of modern dentistry was reviewed by Dr. William Russell this afternoon before the Gyro Club at the Chamber of Commerce. The wide range of knowledge required by dentists was touched upon, and Dr. Russell showed that, although the profession was of great age, modern methods and practice were of recent development.

FIVE BAD TEETH A HEAD

Decay of teeth was due to bacteria in the mouth, and the average mouth has five decayed teeth, he showed.

Dr. Mayo of the Rochester clinic was quoted as stating that the next step in preventtive medicine must come through dentistry, good teeth adding ten years to the average life.

A large insurance company spent $775,000 to inform its policy holders of the importance of dentistry, finding the investment profitable through lengthened lives.

EATS TON YEARLY

The average man consumes about a ton of food and drink each year, and Dr. Russell pointed out that proper case of the mouth was essential. Diseased teeth were a potential menace and frequently a direct cause of disease.

Natural teeth can exert a pressure of 150 pounds on food being masticated, while artificial teeth only provide a pressure of forty pounds.

Reparatory work had dominated dental practice in the past, but preventive work was now coming to the fore.

Dr. Russell advocated a campaign of education of mothers, pointing out that pre-natal diet of mothers had a direct bearing on both temporary and permanent teeth of their children.

Clean teeth seldom decay, Dr. Russell pointed out, recommending that teeth be cleaned at night. Food which required chewing should be preferred, he said in closing.

Dr. Harry Johns sang "Shipmates o' Mine," and "Big Rock Candy Mountain," accompanied by Miss Beatrice Hicks.

A smoking concert will be held by the Gyro Club on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at Harmony Hall, Fort Street.

Man Wheeling Bicycle Is Hit By Motor Car

With a large cut over his right eye and other minor bruises and cuts, A. S. Averill, 1503 Rockland Avenue, was lying in the Jubilee Hospital to-day following an accident on Gorge Road last night.

Mr. Averill was struck by a car driven by Charles Binnie, 2829 Dysart Road, according to the police report of the accident. He was wheeling a bicycle along the road, near Harriet Road, when the mishap occurred.

Mr. Averill was taken to a nearby house where first aid was rendered, and the police notified. He was afterwards transferred to the hospital where Dr. E. W. Bonk is attending him.

SAYS SCHOOL TAXES HEAVY

Dr. H. A. Francis Says Saanich Levy Is Unfair Burden

Ward or Zone Taxes in Saanich Only Temporary Relief, H. E. Tanner States

Complaints of over-taxation for schools purposes, imposed by Saanich upon farmers of the Craigflower area of Esquimalt electoral district, were voiced at the Courthouse this morning before Judge P. S. Lampman, commissioner inquiring into Saanich affairs and the petition of rural landowners for disincorporation.

Dr. H. A. Francis stated that Craigflower district was attached to Saanich for school purposes, and the tax levy for schools had proven to be a burdensome addition to the Provincial taxation.

"We are fully assessed by the Province and the additional Saanich school tax pays the whole cost of Craigflower School," he stated. "Last year the Government recognized the hardships imposed and made a grant of $1,600 to the district, in reduction of the schools levy. In ten years the district has paid Saanich school taxes amounting to $37,687.22, while the cost to Saanich, tuition of Craigflower pupils, could not have averaged $1,000 annually, he stated.

C. H. O'Halloran, counsel for the farmers, showed that in the five years 1923-27 inclusive, Ward Seven had been credited with $17,898 contributed by Craigflower district for schools purposes.

PAY FOUR TIMES COST

"We have twenty-five children attending school and are paying Saanich for their education four times what they cost," Dr. Francis testified.

Forty-five pupils at Colwood School cost the ratepayers $2,025, and twenty-five pupils at Metchosin cost $900 annually, while the Craigflower ratepayers paid Saanich $4,400 for twenty-five children, three attending High School. The cost should be about $1,065, he considered.

"We would be perfectly happy if we could get away from Saanich, Dr. Francis said.

H. J. Davis, commission counsel, stated that he cost to Saanich of tuition of Craigflower district pupils was $1,532 in 1928, the whole cost of the school being $5,519. In five years the district had paid over $17,898 in school taxes and had cost Saanich less than $7,500, Dr. Francis asserted.

WATER EXTENSIONS

A. E. Hale, of Ward Six, directed attention towards abandoned proposals to supply water to the northern wards of Saanich, North Saanich and Sidney. The cost had been estimated at $800,000 and the water charges would be too high to permit of irrigation, engineers had reported.

H. E. Tanner, of Ward Six, said the rural wards complained of heavy taxes levied, not against the assessed value of lands.

He had supported incorporation of Saanich, political methods of alloting road funds raising protests. Mr. Tanner said that road appropriations of $13,000 one year were cut to $3,000 the following year, when an opponent of the Government was elected. "We thought the time ripe to control our own taxes and expenditures," he recalled.

In 1910 secession of Ward Six had been discussed, with a view of inclusion with North Saanich in a rural municipality.

Some years the farmers had unsuccessfully tried to attain school taxation by wards, and taxation by zones had recently been examined and discarded as a temporary measure.

TIMELY MOVE

Now is the time to disincorporate, when our debt is all extinguished. In a short time sewerage will be necessary in the urban areas. This will again pledge our credit and make difficult any possibility of formation of a rural municipality with North Saanich," Mr. Tanner said. He could see no means of redress and protection for rural landowners against increasing municipal costs arising from population in the urban wards.

Ottawa's Hockey Team to Remain In Capital City

Ottawa, Feb. 18.—Ottawa's National Hockey League franchise will remain in the Dominion capital for at least another year, it was announced to-day. The announcement dispelled reports that it would be transferred to Boston, Philadelphia or Cleveland, or some other American city, after the close of the present season.

STOCK MARKETS AND FINANCIAL NEWS

WHITNEY LETTER

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Limited)

"In to-day's session I look for the first couple of hours to bring forth a realization that prices are close enough to the bottom to warrant both the covering of shorts and the purchasing of some stocks, with later in the session this combined buying power proving sufficient in scope to make the first couple of hours not only the low points for the day, but for a good rally covering at least several days of this week. While there is no change in the outlook for decreased activity in the market, nor for the probability that we will soon proceed to register an average day's trading under 3,000,000 shares I believe the principal part of the decline is already over, so that from now on we will want to use further raiding, and what little liquidation is still to be seen, as a means of averaging or purchasing to advantage sound stocks.

"I continue to recommend Marine preferred below 45 and Denver & Rio Grande at its present bargain price. Gotham Knitbac is destined to sell at better prices than have been recorded since the stockholders of Gotham Silk Hosiery were given the opportunity to subscribe to this subsidiary company issue.

"Be sure and have some of New York Tractions so that you will benefit from the good news coming out almost any minute.

"Bethlehem Steel, Anaconda, Greene Cananea, Vanadium as well as Missouri Pacific, Erie and New Haven are all down to strong resistance points, and should be bought around Saturday's closing prices."

N.Y. Market Gossip

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Ltd.)

New York, Feb. 18.—The council's statement which may have the effect of further restricting loans to brokers by member banks was as follows: "The federal advisory council approves the action of the federal reserve board in instructing the federal reserve banks to prevent, as far as possible, the diversion of federal reserve funds for the purpose of carrying loans based on securities. The federal advisory council suggests that all the member banks in each district be asked directly by the federal reserve bank of the district to co-operate in order to attain the end desired. The council believes beneficial results can be attained in this manner.

Another rise in acceptance rates, the second in three days and the fourth this year, carried the rates on all maturities ⅛ per cent higher, at which level they are uniformly higher than reserve rates.

B. & O. for year ended December 31, 1928, earned $12.43 on common against $11.10 on common in 1927.

Toledo employment last week totalled 48,976 at 61 largest factories, a new peak, against 48,111 in previous week, and 31,771 a year ago, says Toledo dispatch.

Radio Corporation plans to produce 150 per cent more vacuum tubes in 1929 than the 1928 output, a record year, and is enlarging factory facilities at Bloomfield and Newark and Cleveland to care for increased production.

Associates Investment Company declared a quarterly divident of 87½ on common, placing issue on $3.50 annual basis against $3 previously.

Chicago and Northwestern handled 76,633 revenue freight cars in first fourteen days of February, against 75,601 in the same period last year. Ore loadings are not included in the above figures.

Atchison earned $18.09 a share on 2,416,293 common shares against $18.73 on 2,324,095 shares in 1927.

Commercial failures in the past week totalled 476, against 520 in 1928 period says Dun's Review.

New York, Feb. 18 (By R. P. Clark Leased Wires).—When the market turns definitely upward it will probably be under the leadership of Anaconda. Whether Anaconda's next important move starts from current or somewhat lower levels remains to be seen, but, inasmuch as the stock will more than likely be the outstanding leader, we would take advantage of any opportunity to accumulate it at concession.

Shubert Theatre Corporation—Some important buying has been attracted toward Shubert by a group who recognize that the only thing lacking in the situation is aggressive sponsorship and they expect that factor to be supplied. The company's earnings for the past five years have averaged $9.90 per share per year and on the basis of its developed earning power the stock ought to sell at least 20 points higher. SHU should be bought here for a major move.

Bethlehem Steel—The recent market action of "BS" has been impressive. Of course, it is too much to expect the stock to move ahead if the rest of the market is reactionary, but it can confidently be expected to sell substantially above par when market conditions improve. Bethlehem Steel is one of the issues that should be accumulated on any break.

Mack Trucks appeals to us particularly because the stock has not been exploited, and, on the basis of dividend and earnings, it is priced too low at current levels. If the general market does have a good market correction, holders of MQ need have little concern. Mack earnings are currently trending sharply upward. Later on in the year we expect the stock to sell at least 50 points higher.

Wall Street To-day

(By B.C. Bond Corporation's Leased Wire.)

STOCKS SPRING UP; A. F. POWER RISES 14; AUBURN CROSSES 161

New York, Feb. 18.—Contrary to many predictions, the market opened to-day, and although there were a number of lows for the year made in some of the oils, among others, the list was strongly under the control of the bulls from the middle of the day on.

The result was that at the close the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was 300.74, or up 4.89 points for the day; while the average of twenty rails was 152.78, or up 1.20 points for the day.

Money opened at 8 per cent, but declined to 7 per cent.

The sensational stock of the day was American and Foreign Power, which shot up from 115 to 129¼, creating a new high level for the year.

Auburn motor was another strong feature. From early trading at 156¾, it shot up to establish a new high at 161½, on a total of 5,850 sales for the day.

From a low early in the morning of 128, Anaconda climbed to 133¾, within around two points of its peak price. American Smelters climbed from 110½ to 113. U.S. Steel common rose from 169 to 173¼.

W. C. Durant was reported to be very active in the market to-day.

Traders willing to take the risk, were advised to watch for the establishment of resistance points of such stocks as U.S. Steel, Anaconda, International Combustion Engineering and Marine preferred.

Brookmire Economic Service had the following to say:

"Although the Federal Reserve pronouncement and the advance in the Bank of England rate to 5½ per cent recently caused precipitate decline in the stock market, there is little evidence that speculative activity will be permanently curtailed or brokers' loans materially reduced. The net results of the two actions seem to indicate that the only active contemplated step at this time is to restrict the rediscount privileges against those banks which are known to be borrowing to make speculative loans. However, the economists state, the effect of such action is likely to be short lived, because the loans of members to brokers and dealers, as reported by the Federal Reserve Board, amount to only about $1,000,000,000, out of a total roughly of $5,500,000,000 and constitute less than twenty per cent of the total of brokerage loans.

The reserve board's position opposing undue inflation of speculative credit is sound and timely, but the economists say the credit situation is more uncertain than it was. With business prospects good and fundamental business conditions sound, there is no reason for reckless liquidation.

New York, Feb. 18.—The evening edition of The Wall Street Journal says: The market was fairly strong, with leading stocks showing gains of two points and more. Call money renewed at 8 per cent and later dropped to 7 per cent. There was no calling of loans and no repetition of last Friday's condition in the market as to money. This in itself helped the tone of the market and there apparently was less apprehension over the probability of the sudden appearance of a large amount of liquidation.

Trading was smaller and in contrast with some recent days the market looked quite leisurely in its race.

The coppers stood out prominently in the rally but in the last hour Steel common was the feature. Andes was perhaps the most active in the copper group, rising to a new high and giving further grounds for believing that the contemplated exchange of stock with Anaconda is said to be preparing will be quite favorable of Andes.

There was one spell of weakness during the day but on this recession trading became very dull, the market almost drying up, and day-to-day traders took this as evidence of a temporarily oversold condition and as indicating the probability of some recovery.

MONTREAL WEAKENS BUT LATER GOES UP; PREMIER SLUMPS

Monteal, Feb. 18.—Many of the heavy traded stocks were inclined to be easier on the market here to-day, but in sympathy with Wall Street they strengthened up at the close.

Power Corporation got down as low as 111½. Hiram Walker to 83½.

Gatineau Power Co., controlled by Canadian Hydro-Electric Corporation Limited, a subsidiary of International Power & Paper, has started additional generators in its Narmers and Chelsea hydro electric plant in the Gatineau River, six miles north of the city of Ottawa. The two new generators with a combined capacity of 58,000 horsepower raise the total installed capacity of the plants of Gatineau Power Co. to 862,000 horsepower installed and in process of installation. This is slightly greater than the developed power on the American side of Niagara Falls. Of this, 439,000 horsepower is on the Gatineau River and the balance 123,600 horsepower is in the hydro-electric developments of the company on the Ottawa River and its other tributaries. In 1928 Gatineau Power Company produced 1,286,000 K.W.H. of electricity two and two-third times the output of the company in 1927.

PAT-DALY RETURNS TO COAST READY FOR ACTION AGAIN

Vancouver, Feb. 18.—Patrick Daly, veteran "hard rock" miner of "anywhere in Canada" and conceded to be the almost infallible "gold hound of the north," has returned from a business trip to Montreal and is at the Hotel Vancouver for a few days before proceeding north to his beloved ore-ribbed mountains.

Pat's business card—if he had any printed—would probably bear the words "mining engineer under his name. But Pat is more than that—as any of the miners of the northern country will bear witness.

Pat is not only a mining engineer with a diploma earned by more than forty years of practical experience in wresting precious metals from the depths of the earth, but he has acquired in that time a wealth of wisdom in applied geology.

Combined with these two is an almost uncanny ability to "smell out" deep, concealed ore bodies and tell their dip, direction and values.

FOUND LOST VEIN

It is a matter of history now how Pat "smelled out" the lost ore body of the famous Premier mine, which has since yielded over twelve millions of dollars in clear profits to the shareholders of the "wonder mine of the north." But Pat did not profit any from that, as he was only mine foreman on the Premier then and working for the former owner, O. B. Bush of Vancouver.

To give a little of that ancient history of the Premier mine.

The property was in its early development stage and $60,000 had been spent on it in tunnelling when H. R. Plate, the engineer who represented New York interests which then had an option on the property, lost the ore body. The property was then abandoned by the New York syndicate and the present owners acquired it on $100,000 bond for five years from O. B. Bush.

Pat Daly was engaged as mine foreman, and declared that in four rounds of shots in a new crosscut to the right he would uncover the lost ore body. Pat did it in two rounds of shots and the mine has been producing millions ever since.

That one feat established Pat's reputation as a "gold hound," but he has enhanced it by numerous other mining feats since—perhaps not quite as sensational in results—but practical and successful in regard to economical development of ore bodies. Now the veteran miner's advice is eagerly sought on all mining matters in the north.

ADVISED DOZENS

There are nearly a dozen well-known properties in the Portland Canal district that were on the verge of being abandoned had it not been for timely advice from Pat Daly—which advice generally produced practical results.

And this season Pat is starting development work on a mine that he is supremely confidene "will prove even greater that the Premier." It is known as the Mountain Boy and is located on American Creek just off the Bear River, and on the Stewart side of the Rufus Argenta and George Copper properties. Mountain Boy is one of the first discoveries on the Bear River, but was never thoroughly prospected until last year.

What he discovered then had led Pat Daly to believe that he has one of the greatest properties in the north. And in making that statement he is not trying to boost stock sales. For as a result of his recent trip east, Mountain Boy is now fully financed and there is no stock on the market.

Mr. Daly declares there is enough capital available now to bring the property to the shipping stage, and once that is reached, "Well, there will be no trouble about finances,' says the veteran "hard rock" man. He announced that a five-drill compressor plant and complete equipment is on the way now from the eastern manufacturers and will be taken in before the snow goes.

Mountain Boy is a silver-copper proposition, Mr. Daly says, and he declares he found the high-grade lead last Summer. Samples of this high-grade ran from 600 to as high as 4,000 ounces of silver to the ton, and 5 to 15 per cent copper.

STOCK MARKETS — FINANCIAL NEWS — GRAIN MARKETS

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

(By Branson, Brown and Co. Ltd.)

Winnipeg, Feb. 18—Wheat: Was decidedly strong to-day with the buying chiefly speculative in character. Opening prices were about unchanged but the market steadily advanced until prices were about two cents over the close Saturday, with the May future again reaching the season's high point.

There was some liquidation around top levels which caused a slight setback, but the market acted very stubborn and displayed a strong undertone. There were a few buying orders drifting in from New York but commission houses, the country and the local trade were the principal takers of the wheat that came out in the pit.

The buying to-day was said to be based on the fear of damage to Winter wheat in the United States, where temperatures had made a sharp drop the last eighteen hours. Offerings were not large at any time. The local cash market was very dull, and no trace of export business worked over the week-end could be found. Offerings were not pressing and spreads were generally unchanged.

Broomhall reported European weather less severe with snow covering more or less general, but that conditions in India were still very unsatisfactory as rains have been insufficient.

The news from Russia is also unfavorable and there are indications that that country will shortly be forced to come into these market both for wheat and flour. World shipments last week totaled 20,023,000 bushels, of which North America cleared 9,182,000 bushels. These shipments are about 3,000,000 bushels smaller than the previous week but the on passage supplies decreased 1,336,000 bushels. The United States visible showed a small decrease of 740,000 bushels. Winnipeg futures close 1¼ to ¾ higher.

Coarse grains—These markets were firm but only a light trade was passing, the demand apparently being slim. Rye followed the trend of wheat. Oats closed ⅛ lower to ¼ higher. Barley ⅜ higher and rye 1½ to 1¼ higher.

Flax—This market again displayed strength in sympathy with outside markets, closing 3½ to 3¾ higher. Trade was only light but offerings were very small.

(Branson, Brown & Co. Ltd.)

Chicago, Feb. 18—Wheat: Unfavorable weather, severe cold following mild conditions the past two days gave wheat another advance to-day and incidentally showed how sensitive the market is to any adverse weather conditions. Foreign news suggests that the disappearance of wheat will take care of unwieldly stocks before the new crop and big yields will be essential again this coming season. Indian outlook is unfavorable and Russia promises to be out of the export trade indefinitely. The domestic visible made a small decrease, 740,000 bushels. On passage stocks decreased 1,336,000 bushels and the total now stands 7,000,000 bushels less than a year ago. World's shipments again were over the 20,000,000 mark with 9,182,000 bushels from North America.

Canadian country marketings are 544,000 bushels, vs. 722,000 bushels last year. Port Arthur and Fort William stocks are now only about 4,000,000 bushels more than a year ago.

We think the supply and demand situation is evening up rapidly and that big stocks will no longer be such a bugbear as during the fore part of the season. This will leave the crop developments the main market influence. On setbacks we favor the buying side.

Corn: Narrow trade with not much change in prices although market steadied a little, influenced by the strength in wheat. The cash demand was slow and not much export business was indicated. Foreign needs theoretically are heavy but buying is disappointing. Clearances to-day 351,000 bushels. Visible supply increased 3,702,000 bushels. Cash basis ½ up to ½ lower. Country sales to arrive only 12,000 bushels. Shipping sales 30,000 bushels; market needs new stimulus on the buying side. Sales to store 100,000 bushels.

Oats: Rather draggy and cash oats were unchanged to 1c lower with sales of 54,000 bushels. Receipts fair and visible stocks increased 799,000 bushels. Sales to store 100,000 bushels.

Rye: Showed fair gains along with wheat, visible decreased 54,000 bushels. Market position is not at all weak, cash rye holds strong and receipts moderate.

SHELLY FORECASTS HOME OIL DIVIDEND

Home Oil well No. 1 is now producing 600 barrels of 74 gravity naphtha daily, according to Hon. W. C. Shelly, Provincial Minister of Finance and president of the Home Oil Company, in a statement issued to-day after receipt of reports from Imperial Oil Company officials directing the work at the well.

In addition to the above production there is a yield of from eighteen to twenty barrels of 56 gravity crude between the six and eight-inch casings of the well.

Optimistic reports on other wells of the company were also received by Mr. Shelly, who stated that well No. 2 was now within 150 feet of the limestone formation and producing daily thirty to forty barrels of 56 gravity crude. No. 3 well, down 4,450 feet, is approaching the Home and Dalhousie sands where crude oil may be found at an early date.

Well No. 4 is now down 1,800 feet and drilling is proceeding.

President Shelly expressed himself well pleased with the results so far obtained and pointed out that with the present production of 600 barrels daily at No. 1 well, selling between $2.50 and $4.00 per barrel at the Calgary refinery, sufficient revenue was accruing to pay dividends equal to the par of the stock per annum.

Future development in the other wells, Mr. Shelly added, should show substantial additional returns.

London Market Weak For Canadian Bonds

(Over Branson, Brown Leased Wire)

Toronto, Feb. 18.—The Canadian bond market was not helped any last week by the news that the Bank of England rate had been raised from 4½ per cent to 5½ per cent.

The effect of this was to increase the exchange between Toronto and London, England, but from the standpoint of marketing bonds in England the increase of sterling exchange was offset by the tendency toward weakness in the price of Canadian bonds there. This decline was only a slight fraction, however, and had little significance for Canadian issues.

The fact is that so few bonds are sold by Canadians into the British market nowadays that, even if a more serious decline in the price of bonds were to occur there, it would not greatly affect the market here. Most of the cheap bonds held in England, which could be resold in Canada, have been already disposed of and have been absorbed by Canadians, and the balance over there available to sell in this country is not at all large. But the fact is that the decline in the British market in the price of bonds has been trifling.

Noble Five Ships Rich Concentrates

Vancouver, Feb. 18—According to an official report sent to Miller, Court & Company by Paul Lincoln, president and general manager of Noble Five Mines Limited, the company's concentrator treated 1145 tons of ore in January, an average of thirty-nine tons per day. Average millheads amount to approximately $18.50 per ton. The company shipped 138 tons of lead concentrates for the month, averaging 111 ounces of silver, fifty-five per cent lead and 5.6 per cent zinc.

This concentrate carried a net value to the company of $100 per ton, and therefore constitutes the richest concentrates being shipped to the Trail smelter by any company. Mr. Lincoln says that this month the output will be considerably larger, and he will also ship about 150 tons of zinc concentrate.

Meanwhile, development work is proceeding very rapidly; and, in fact, all the ore handled is coming entirely from development work. It is the company's intention to increase the amount of ore handled in the mill as rapidly as more water is available in Carptener Creek for power. The company will operate on a basis of not less than sixty tons per day as quickly as possible.

BOND MARKET TRADING DULL

New York, Feb. 18—Trading in the early bond market to-day was practically at a standstill, following last week's reactions. The general tone was firm, but some weakness cropped out in scattered sections of the list. Traders seemed to be marking time, until there is a clearing in the credit situation.

Anaconda Copper issues resumed their leadership of the market. The 7s advanced 1¼ points, while the 6s ruled firm at Saturday's closing figures. Dodge Brothers 6s and International Match 5s yielded to selling pressure.

Utilities were firm, International Telephone convertible 4½s improving fractionally on a fairly active demand.

Oils were steady at Saturday's figures.

German Republic 7s were active and higher in the improved foreign list.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Soul" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches and societies on Sunday.

"Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind" (Matthew xxii 36, 37) was one of the Scriptural texts contained in the lesson-sermon.

Following the reading of the Bible texts, passages were also read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, one passage being the following from page 467: "Question—What are the demands of the Science of Soul? Answer—The first demand of this Science is, 'Thou shalt have no other gods before me.' This me is Spirit. Therefore the command means this: Thou shalt have no intelligence, no life, no substance, no truth, no love, but that which is spiritual."

To Drive Tunnel On Island Mine

Vancouver, Feb. 18. — With higher copper prices causing marked interest in new properties carrying copper values, attention is being given the development programme mapped out by Quatsino Copper-Gold Mines Limited. The property consists of thirty-two claims and fractions situated in the Quatsino Mining Division, on the northerly end of Vancouver Island, and adjoins and interlocks with property of the Coast Copper Company, formerly known as the Old Sport.

Recently the Quatsino company provided for the building of accommodations for a party of men, so that an extensive development programme could be carried out. This decision was arrived at following the promising results of development on Coast Copper, as carried out by the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company Limited, who have spent $1,500,000 to date in tunneling, drifting and diamond-drilling.

B. W. W. McDougall, M.E., reporting on the property, said that generally speaking the Quatsino Copper-Gold claims have similar geology to Coast Copper veins. He recommended extensive development. This the company is now setting out to accomplish.

The important outcropping will be stripped and an adit tunnel driven along the most prominent east and west vein to the intersection with the "Old Sport" vein.

DIRECTORS ELECTED

BUSINESS OF COMPANY

Metal and Mining Shares Incorporated is a company organized primarily to provide a medium for safe and profitable investment in the metal and mining industries of the world.

The Company has many advantages in common with sound investment trusts, notably the safety factor of diversification. (The Company already owns shares in companies operating in fifteen metals and located in twenty different countries.)

Metal and Mining Shares Incorporated, however, has the further advantage that, in making investments, it will have at its disposal more of the information necessary to wise and profitable investing than was ever before available, we believe, to any similar company. It will have this advantage because:

1. Metal and Mining Shares Incorporated deliberately concentrates upon one field—a field sufficiently restricted in itself so that the Company can secure, in that field, the information which is always necessary to successful investing. The information so acquired will, we feel sure, enable the Company to take advantage of the opportunities ever present in these industries for high yield and exceptional appreciation of capital.

2. The Company commands the services of the Mineral Research Corporation, which has been organized to provide engineering and other technical advice and guidance of a more highly qualified order and broader scope than has ever before been made available to the investor.

The research corporation is made up of practical and experienced mining men and of mining engineers, geologists, and metallurgists of high repute and proved ability. Continous detailed studies will be maintained by this organization (a) of the metals situation generally, and (b) specifically of all important companies operating in different parts of the world which may offer opportunities for investment. Metal and Mining Shares Incorporated is, therefore, equipped to give to its shareholders the judgment of trained minds in the various phases of the mining and metallurgical industry all over the world. Seventy per cent of the capital of the Company will be invested in well-managed companies of proved and valuable resources and of proved profitable operations and dividend records, thereby securing the greatest safety compatible with reasonable returns by way of dividends to Metal and Mining Shares Incorporated. A minor part, or thirty per cent, will be invested in companies in various stages of development up to that of proved dividend records. It is substantially by way of the latter investments that Metal and Mining Shares Incorporated and its shareholders will avail themselves of opportunities in which the larger profits in the mining industry are realized.

The population of the Republic is estimated at 500,000, exclusive of over 37,000 Americans living in the Canal Zone and in the Cities of Panama and Colon. The area is 32,380 square miles.

The Atlantic Coast line is 477 miles in length and the Pacific, 767 miles. As the Canal is the gateway between the Pacific and Atlantic, the shipping brings to the Cities of Panama and Colón an enormous trade. These Cities are also visited yearly by tens of thousands of tourists. The pay roll in connection with the operation of the Canal and the American Army amounts to approximately $25,000,000 per year. Panama has great natural resources. It chief agricultural products are bananas, cocoanuts, sugar, cocoa, coffee and tobacco. There are valuable mineral and potential oil deposits which are at the present time largely undeveloped. A system of roads is now being constructed which, together with railway extensions under way will make available the great natural wealth of the Republic.

The Cities of Panama and Colon as well as the Cities of Balboa, Cristobal and Ancon in the Canal Zone, are all provided with paved streets, electric light and power, street cars, water and sewers. Excellent up-to-date hospital facilities have also been provided.

Relations with the United States

Under the terms of the treaty ratified between Panama and the United States on February 26, 1904, in connection with the construction of the Panama Canal, the United States guarantees and will maintain the independence of the Republic of Panama. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity the use, occupation and control of a zone of land—for the construction, maintenance, operation, sanitation and protection of said Canal for the width of 10 miles, together with other concessions in the Cities of Panama and Colon and in adjacent waters and islands. As compensation for the rights granted, the United States Government paid to the Republic of Panama the sum of $10,000,000 of which $6,000,000 is now invested in real estate mortgages in New York City, and is known as the Constitutional Fund; and further the United States Government under the provisions of the treaty makes the Republic of Panama an annual payment of $250,000.

Security

The proceeds of these bonds will be used for investment in real estate mortgages. They are a direct obligation of the Banco Nacional de Panama and are guaranteed by the Republic of Panama. In addition they are secured by Real Estate Mortgages given for loans made by the Bank in an aggregate principal amount not less than 110% of the amount of bonds. Banco Nacional de Panama was organized in 1904 under the laws of the Republic of Panama and its entire issued Capital is owned by the Republic. On December 31st, 1927, the paid up capital of the Bank was $837,446.70, and Reserve Fund $939,563.99.

Sinking Fund

Beginning February 1st, 1930, a Sinking Fund of $50,000.00 per year (or more at the option of the Bank) will be paid to the Trustee to be used for buying bonds at the market or calling bonds at the call price.

B.C. Financier Gets $1,000,000 Panama Issue

Vancouver, Feb. 18.—Here on the Pacific Coast is situated the head office of the Royal Financial Corporation, whose progress has closely paralleled the amazing industrial and financial development of Western Canada. Not only has this house been closely identified with municipal and industrial financing throughout the West, but it has entered the foreign field and won marked successes in competition with large American interests.

E. B. McDERMID

managing director of the Royal Financial Corporation limited, prominent Vancouver investment banking house. Mr. McDermid is the first Canadian financier to secure Latin-American bond issues for his firm.

Canadian enterprise and ingenuity as evidenced in efforts of E. B. McDermid, managing director of the Royal Financial Corporation Limited, has been responsible for his firm being the first to secure Latin-American bond issues. A notable example is the new issue of $1,000,000 6½ 20-year gold bonds of the Banco Nacional de Panama, guaranteed by the Republic of Panama.

These bonds offer a generous return with the advantages of excellent security and ready marketability and, if the previous issue can be considered as a criterion, the current offering will be snapped up within a few days.

SELLING EXPECTED AGAIN ON RALLY

New York, Feb. 18 (By R. P. Clark leased wire)—There is no use railing at the Federal Reserve authorities," The Wall Street Mirror to-day says. "They set out to do a certain job and they are doing that job. There will be plenty of time to get into the market when it shows that selling has been completed, and when that time arrives it will tell its own story. This is no time to be taking the port side of the market. Those who sold stocks much higher up are now covering at least some of their lines. Any sharp rally would find these people again on the selling side.

"Copper stocks are getting down around prices where they can be bought. The latest bullish news regarding the coppers is that Calumet and Arizona directors at their next meeting are likely to put the stock on an $8 dividend basis, as compared with the present $6 dividend."

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily's Lonesome Snowball

Copyright, 1929, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate

(By HOWARD R. GARIS)

One day, after Baby Bunty and the forty sixteen other rabbit children had come home from school, they began to play around Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow.

"Oh, I know what let's do!" shouted Jingle, suddenly.

"What?" asked Jangle.

"Let's have a snowball fight!"

"Oh, yes—let's!" cried Bumble and Stumble.

Soon the bunny boys and girls were making soft balls of snow. Then they made a snow fort and half the crowd went inside the fort while the other half stayed outside. Fast through the air flew the snowballs back and forth, into the fort and out of the fort and there was laughter and shouting and squealing such as you never heard before. For when a little girl rabbit was hit by a snowball and some of the cold, white stuff went down the back of her dress, of course, she squealed.

Bunty hopped into the bungalow.

But at last it began to grow dark and Nurse Jane, stepping to the door of the bungalow, called:

"Come into supper now, Uncle Wiggily is waiting for you!"

"Oh, maybe Daddicums will tell us a story about his adventures to-day!" cried Stumble, as he fell over an icicle and bumped his nose in a bank of snow. But he wasn't hurt much and soon jumped up laughing.

Baby Bunty was the last of the rabbit children to hurry into the hollow stump bungalow to eat supper with Uncle Wiggily. And the reason the little orphan rabbit was last was because she saw on the ground, after the make-believe fight, a lonesome snowball. All the other snowballs had been thrown into or out of the fort and had broken all to pieces. But this one snowball was left as round as an apple.

"I guess some one forgot to use you to throw in the fight," said Bunty, as she picked up the snowball. "You poor, lonesome thing! You didn't have any fun like the other snowballs. But, never mind! I'll take you in the bungalow with me and you won't be lonesome any more. I'll take care of you, poor little snowball!"

Now it might seem funny to you to hear Bunty talking like this to just a snowball. But the little orphan rabbit was like that. She was always doing queer things. Bringing a snowball in the house because she thought it might be lonesome was only one queer thing.

Carrying the lonesome snowball in her paws, Bunty hopped into the bungalow. She was the last one to go up to the bathroom to wash for supper and while she was there Nurse Jane called:

"Hurry down if you want anything to eat, Bunty!"

You may be sure Bunty wanted something to eat, so she hurried. She was almost to the top of the stairs when she happened to think of the lonesome snowball which she had left in the bathroom.

"Oh, the poor thing," Bunty said. "If I take it downstairs somebody may eat it. I know what I'll do with it. I'll leave it in Uncle Wiggily's bed. That will be a good place for a lonesome snowball."

So, not thinking she was doing anything wrong, Baby Bunty tucked the lonesome snowball under the covers down at the foot of Uncle Wiggily's bed. Then, without saying anything about what she had done, Bunty slid down the banister railing to supper.

"Did you have any adventures to-day, Unkie Wig?" asked the little orphan rabbit as she ate some carrot marmalade on her clover bread.

"No," answered Mr. Longears. "I am sorry to say that I did not. I am going to bed early, though, and to-morrow I may have a fine adventure."

So, after the little rabbits had done their school home work, they all went to bed. Then Uncle Wiggily hopped up to his room. But as he got in bed and stretched his toes down to the end, all of a sudden he gave a loud yell.

"What's the matter?" asked his wife who was putting out the milk bottle.

"Oh, there's an adventure in my bed and it's a cold, chilly adventure, cried the rabbit gentleman. "Oh, what's in my bed so cold?"

He hopped out, turned back the covers and there he saw the white round thing.

"Who put this snowball in my bed?" cried Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, I did, because it was so lonesome," sleepily said Bunty in the next room. "But I guess you can put it outside now, Unkie Wig!"

"Well, that's what I'm going to do!" chuckled the rabbit. So he put the snowball outside, which, after all, was the best place for it. Then all the bunnies went to sleep. And if the rubber boot doesn't step on the gumdrop and make it flat like a lollypop I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the shadow Fox.

Smart Doings Of Animals

Sick Horse Goes to Farrier of His Own Account.

A Glasgow carter had a sick horse which he had treated by a farrier, who gave the poor animal quick relief. It was well for a long time thereafter.

One day the carter left his nag for a while without hitching it to a post. When he returned, horse and cart were missing. Nor could they be found anywhere near.

After several hours, a man came bringing the missing properties. The horse had been at the farrier's shop. He had shown up without an attendant. The farrier and his assistant, guessing that he had had a recurrence of his old complaint, unharnessed him. By this time, the old horse was suffering so badly that he lay down. Remedies were administered. He soon felt all right again and was sent back to his master.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KNOCK

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

Wee Clowny stood upon some rocks and eyed the monstrous water locks. "I've heard of these before," said he. "They're all around the land. One great big place they're always seen! The Panama Canal I mean. Of course, I've never looked on those, but folks say they are grand.

"You bet they are," the Sea Man said. "They tower away up overhead. To see them work would really be a thrilling sight for you. I would suggest that some bright day, when all of you are down that way, you just stop over for a while and watch the boats go through."

Then Scouty shouted, "Now let's go and see how they work down below. We've wandered all around the top and seen enough of this. I'll bet the locks, when open wide, make anybody want to hide. Gee, just imagine how the water rushes with a hiss."

So, down below they promptly went and 'bout half an hour was spent in tramping o'er the lower bed. Then Coppy cried aloud, "Where are the Trouble Tots? I'll bet they'll get us into trouble yet. I wonder what it was that made them leave our happy crowd?"

The Sea Man winked his eye and smiled. Said he, "Now, listen here, my child. Those pesky little Trouble Tots are up to no real good. I sadly fear that you will find they have mischief now in mind. Whatever they may do, you Tinies might have known they would."

Just then the big locks opened wide. "Look out," the Sea Man loudly cried. And then he jumped to safety, while the bunch began to scream. The Trouble Tots had played their trick, and it had worked out very slick. The water from the locks took all the Tinymites down stream.

To-morrow's Horoscope

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1929

During the business hours of the day kindly stars rule, according to astrology. Early morning and the evening are not so well directed by the planetary government for this date.

This is a sway especially helpful to persons who enjoy prosperity. It makes for broad vision and ambitious enterprise.

Commerce is subject to far-reaching expansion, and 1929 is to bring the peoples of the world even closer together than the recent miracles of invention have united them.

For the President of the United States there is a sign of promise which seems to indicate some exalted honor that is to be bestowed upon him.

World travel is to increase at an astonishing rate this year, when there will be a new impetus to girdle the globe.

Lawyers, physicians, architects and journalists are all subject to a direction of the stars making for supreme success and prosperity.

Building that includes supreme engineering feats is to be carried on with conspicuous success, it is again prognosticated.

The government of the stars which long has had power in influencing inhabitants of the earth to co-operate and to combine in great undertakings is strong in 1929, and will have its effect upon anti-war movements, the seers prophesy.

America is to earn lasting fame by original designs for bridges, public buildings and hydraulic enterprises.

Persons whose birthdate it is may meet certain obstacles in the way of success, but they will prosper if they maintain secrecy regarding their affairs, it is predicted.

Children born on this day probably will have many adventures and strange experiences in the course of their lives. They may be too much inclined toward independence and may hold radical views.

BULLET CAUSED DEATH

The body of Doheny was clad in nightclothes and a robe when found, with a bullet through the head, on the floor of Plunkett's room Saturday midnight. The investigating officers and Dr. Fishbaugh expressed the opinion Doheny had been called to Plunkett's room late Saturday night, that Doheny had seen that Plunkett's mind was in a serious condition, as was declared to have been gathered from evidence in the room. A pillow from one of the rooms was on a lounge, indicating to officials that Doheny had tried to quiet the man by having him lie down. That Plunkett had refused was shown by the undisturbed condition of the pillow.

Toppled and disarranged furniture and furnishings indicated to the officials Doheny had battled with Plunkett.

OLD REVOLVER USED

The investigators formed the theory that the temporarily insane man tore loose from his friend and employer, firing the fatal shot from an obsolete model revolver. They also observed the possibility that Doheny had for a moment quieted the man and that both were seated in chairs a few feet apart when the shot was fired.

Immediately Plunkett left the room, only to be met in the hallway by Mrs. Doheny and the physician, who had been called from a theatre to attend Plunkett.

SHOT HEARD

"You stay out of here," Plunkett shouted, according to the doctor, who said the crazed man turned about and slammed the door behind him. A shot followed. Dr. Fishbaugh sent Mrs. Doheny back to her living-room and entered Plunkett's rooms to find both bodies.

SHOCK TO FATHER

Dr. Fishbaugh this morning declared reports to the effect that Edward L. Doheny was near death because of the slaying of his son were entirely without foundation. He said the elder Doheny, who is seventy-two years old, was bearing up well under the strain.

Doheny, founder of the great oil business, which he virtually turned over to his son, collapsed when he walked from his home across the street to view the body of his son, but recovered quickly.

ARGUMENT DEVELOPED

A disclosure which interested the investigators was that, following Saturday afternoon's futile conference at "Greystone," young Doheny and his wife visited Plunkett at his apartment in Los Angeles. It was another effort to induce the ailing man to go to the sanitarium. Plunkett's refusal developed into a verbal tilt with his employer.

It was stated that Mrs. Doheny was sitting in the living-room only seventy-five feet from the tragic bedroom when her husband was killed.

It was but a few minutes later that Dr. Fishbaugh arrived and was let in by Mrs. Doheny. The physician told District Attorney Fitts that Mrs. Doheny appeared calm and in good spirits when he asked her later if she had heard the shots which killed her husband. Dr. Fishbaugh said she said she believed "on reflection" that she had, but had dismissed it at the time as the sound of overturned furniture. Although Mrs. Doheny was reported suffering actutely from shock, the physician, said she had not allowed herself to become hysterical.

FULL INQUIRY

"In order to eliminate any doubt that the tragedy was the result of a mind suddenly gone mad," District Attorney Fitts said, "we will push our inquiry until we have completely reconstructed the murder and suicide as far as it is circumstantially possible."

Piles Go Quick

Piles are caused by congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Only an internal remedy can remove the cause. That's why salves and cutting fail. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds, because it relieves this congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has given quick, safe and lasting relief to thousands of Pile sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. MacFarlane Drug Co., Vancouver Drug Co., and druggists everywhere sell Hem-Roid with this guarantee. (Advt.)

FREIGHTER SAFE AFTER BATTLING ATLANTIC STORM

Ss. President Harding Fought Through Terrific Snowstorms to Aid Disabled Ship

New York, Feb. 18—The United States freighter Padnsay was reported safe yesterday, twenty-four hours after she had broadcast an SOS from the storm-swept North Atlantic.

A radio message from Capt. William Rind of the United States liner President Harding to the New York offices of the line told of the safety of the vessel for which three ships had searched during the night.

It was couched in the cryptic language used by seamen and gave no details.

"Padnsay O.K." Captain Rind's message read. "Proceeding to destination."

Officers of the line said no further report was expected and, in shipping circles it was believed that the crew of the Padnsay had been unable to repair the damage to the ship's steering gear.

HEAVY GALE

The distress call of the freighter was picked up Saturday by the liner President Harding which immediately turned from its course for Bremen, Germany, to search for the ship. The message from the President Harding said the freighter's rudder was gone and gave the position of the distressed freighter as about 300 miles south of Cape Race, Newfoundland. The steering gear of the Padnsay presumably had broken some time during the thirty-six-hour storm that swept the Atlantic steamer lanes.

The President Harding steamed approximately 300 miles through heavy snowstorms to the position where the Padnsay presumably would have drifted, reaching that place about 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

"A 3 a.m. arrived at position presumably where Padnsay would have drifted since 8 a.m. Saturday," read a wireless message from Capt. Rind to the line's offices here at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning. "Working back along her drift, nothing seen or heard of Padnsay. The other ships searching. Stay until daybreak. Very heavy snowfall. Now 6.30 a.m. proceeding to Plymouth."

Nothing further was heard here until shortly before noon yesterday when the message from Capt. Rind reporting the freighter safe was received.

SAN FRANCISCO SHIPPING

San Fancisco, Feb. 18.—The speed of the Matson liner Malolo, largest and fastest of the company's fleet, has made possible the inauguration of a two-weeks' excursion trip to Hawaii, it was announced Saturday.

The trip will permit of six day visit in the islands, allowing four days aboard ship each way. The Malolo will leave San Francisco on May 18 at noon, arriving in Honolulu on May 22. The vessel will leave Hawaii May 29, arriving here June 3 at 9 a.m.

Opium Seizure Made On Empress of Asia

Customs Officers Traveled From Vancouver to Victoria Aboard Liner and Find Six Tins of Narcotics, Arrest Chinese Cabin Boy and Return Him to Vancouver; Two Other Arrests Made in Vancouver in Same Connection.

Taken from the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia just as that ship was about to leave Victoria for the Orient late Saturday night, Tong Loong, number one cabin boy aboard the liner, was arrested by Vancouver customs officers, H. Sherwood and W. E. Howes, and returned to the mainland city on the midnight boat to face a police court charge of illegally having opium in his possession.

Acting on information received on Friday, the customs officers, under Inspector R. A. McLaughlin, visited the Empress of Asia on Saturday morning a few hours before she sailed for this port en route to China, Japan and the Philippine Islands. Their visit was rewarded with the seizure of thirty-five tins of opium valued at $4,000, and the subsequent arrest of three Chinese, who were charged in the Vancouver police court this morning and remanded for a week.

FURTHER SEIZURE

After the seizure in Vancouver Inspector McLaughlin placed two of his men aboard the Asia and instructed them to make a thorough search of the vessel during the five-hour passage to Victoria. They began in the crew's quarters and before long discovered six tins of narcotics hidden in a pile of clothes in Tong Loong's cabin. They immediately placed Tong Loong under arrest and continued the search, their further efforts, however, meeting with no success. The six tins of opium found board the liner were addressed to Hong Dong, West Third Avenue, Vancouver, and Inspector McLaughlin and Sergeant J. Fripps of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police delivered the tins to this address yesterday and placed Hong Dong under arrest. From information divulged by Hong Dong after his arrest the officers visited Hong King, East Pender Street, and placed him also under arrest on the major charge of importing opium.

VICTORIA'S BUDGET MAY BE CUT TO FIT FIXED INCOME

ESTIMATED AT $2,665,588

The unrevised estimates, as presented by the City Comptroller call for an expenditure of $2,665,588 this year under all heads. This total is already varied by additional requirements in the ordinary expenditures of the School Board, and may be further varied by either increases or decreases as the estimated expenditures of other departments are brought under review.

The School Board estimates will go before the council this evening at 633,235 gross, which, with the help of receipts from Government grants, tuition fees and other receipts, is reduced to a net estimate of $474,135 for ordinary school purposes.

The uncontrollable expenditures of the city for the current year will be in excess of $1,486,672, including debt charges, police and school costs, and other items beyond the review of the council.

The portion of the budget that is nominally controllable, but actually only controllable to a minor extent, calls for $1,178,915 in the unrevised estimates for the year. This includes salaries, office maintenance, waterwheds, streets, boulevards and parks upkeep, charities, fire prevention, hospitals, sanitary and sewerage and other public works accounts, as well as nearly everything, apart from debt requirements, on which the city is asked to pay out.

REDUCTION IN DEBT

Debt requirements will be lighter in total this year by some $30,000, with a gross debt several millions below what it was six years ago. Some of the debt charges go back to sums borrowed in 1892, and include the major street and works development of the town for many years. Extension security charges this year would call for $363,951 alone, but for the use of $146,779 from land sales recipts from 1928.

WANT MORE FOR LESS

This year the council is faced with the administration of an actively growing centre, with the likelihood of many demands not encountered before, and without any diminuition in the insistence of the ratepayers that they should pay less and less, for more and more in the way of services of every nature.

More and better garbage collection, more men and at higher rates of pay, more road work and sidewalks, more park development, and many other requests are already before the council in one form or another.

The fixing of the city's income in advance of a detailed budget, and the desire of the council to live within that figure, may head off all but the most reasonable demands. It is in this sense that the budget plan of Mayor Anscomb is finding fresh support, and may be ratified after due discussion.

"Why, gentlemen," thundered a political candidate, "my opponent hasn't a leg to stand on."

"All the more reason why he should have a seat," came a voice from the back of the hall.

DENSE FOG DELAYED SAILING OF C.P.R. LINER SATURDAY

A dense fog which spread itself over the Strait in heavy blankets Saturday night and early Sunday morning kept the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia at the Rithet piers here until 1.15 o'clock Sunday morning. The Asia arrived from Vancouver on Saturday night at 10.30 o'clock, already five hours late due to a delay in Vancouver for mails from Eastern Canada. Local passengers, cargo and mails were aboard and she was ready to sail by 11.15 o'clock, but in the heavy fog Capt. A. J. Hailey, master of the Asia, did not dare bring his command out from the shelter of the docks. Shortly after 1 o'clock the fog lifted somewhat and the giant white liner was able to slowly back out from the docks, cautiously turn round near the breakwater and feel her way around Race Rocks and then gather speed as she approached the open ocean for the nine-day crossing to Yokohama. The delay in sailing at this port will be made up during the passage.

Lincoln Bringing 450 Tons Of Cargo For Discharge Here

With 450 tons of general cargo for discharge at this port as well as passengers and mail, the American Mail liner President Lincoln is due here next Monday morning from China, Japan and the Philippine Islands. W. M. Allan, local agent, this morning received word regarding local cargo from company headquarters in Seattle. It is understood that the liner is bringing a heavy general cargo for Seattle and a seasonable passenger list.

FALLING BRIDGE CRUSHES BUS

And no one was killed! . . . Utterly demolished was this large bus when a bridge span at Warnerville, N.Y., suddenly collapsed, but no one in the crowd of basketball rooters returning from a game met death. Eleven were slightly injured, however. The crash of the bridge is under official investigation.

Alloway's Crew Is On Way to Seattle

United States Coastguard Cutter Chelan Takes Capt. Throckmorton and Crew of Thirty-four Aboard For Return to Seattle; Expected Home Late This Week; Doomed Freighter Now Piled Up on Rocks of Ugamak Pass; Salvage Impossible.

Vancouver, Feb. 18.—The entire crew of the steamer Alloway, which became a total loss on the rocks of Unimak Pass on Saturday last, left Dutch Harbor for Seattle Sunday night aboard the United States coastguard cutter Chelan, and are expected to arrive at their home port late this week. Captain H. S. Throckmorton, skipper of the wrecked freighter, advised the local office of the Canadian-American Shipping Company to-day.

There are thirty-four men, all told, in the crew, including James L. Posey, the oiler, who was rescued from his lone watch over the doomed ship by the cutter on Friday.

Seattle, Feb. 18.—Wrecked on the rocks of Ugamak Island at the entrance to Unimak Pass near here, the ill-fated freighter Alloway has finally reached the end of her "ghost" cruise, Commander Ralph W. Dempwolf, of the coastguard cutter Chelan reported to Seattle over the week-end. The Chelan found the Alloway piled on the beach under a 1,000-foot cliff, after searching in the fog for thirty-six hours. The decks of the Alloway were awash, cargo had broken loose from its holdings and was floating in the breakers surrounding the boat, and the entire hull was full of water. The ship is a total loss and salvage would be impossible, Commander Dempwolf advised. The gala probably will complete the destruction of the Alloway.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt drydock at any tide, add 18.9 feet to the height of high water as above given.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Songhees drydock add 30 feet to the height of high water as above given.

NO WORD YET OF PACIFIC SHIPPER

Although she was scheduled to reach Victoria from the United Kingdom on Saturday morning, King Brothers, local agents, had today at noon received no word regarding the whereabouts of the Furness Pacific motor liner Pacific Shipper. Whether she is delayed at California ports on account of heavy cargo or whether she met with heavy weather crossing the Atlantic necessitating repairs is not known here. The local agents, however, expected wireless advice from the South at any time telling of the ship's position and when she can be expected here.

BLUE FUNNELER DUE TO-DAY

Talthybius Expected at Quarantine at 3 p.m.; Protesilaus Out To-morrow

More than twelve hours ahead of schedule, due to fine weather off the coast, the Blue Funnel liner Talthybius from China and Japan was expected at the William Head quarantine station this afternoon at 3 o'clock, according to wireless advice received in the city this morning by the local agents. This time should bring the liner alongside the Rithet piers about 4 o'clock. For this port she has 190 tons of general cargo and one Chinese steerage passenger. A good general cargo and a fair passenger list will go on to Vancouver aboard the ship. Capt. J. J. Gosse, formerly of Victoria, came over from Vancouver this morning to take the Talthybius up to Vancouver early this evening.

After docking the inbound liner at the mainland port early to-morrow morning Capt. Gosse will have a few hours sleep and then will board the liner Protesilaus of the same line and bring her out to Race Rocks on her way to the Orient. She will not call here this trip. The Protesilaus will leave Vancouver to-morrow morning at 6 o'clock and Capt. Gosse plans to get her to Race Rocks by about noon. He will leave the vessel there and return to Vancouver on the afternoon boat from Victoria. The next day he will take the Talthybius to Seattle and Tacoma. The Protesilaus will bring out a good general cargo and a seasonable passenger list.

From $416.00 up (Montreal-overseas and return to Montreal) you get a 38 day to 59 day sightseeing tour—visiting the old world—the cradle of civilization—of seeing world-renowned cities and beauty spots, historic sites and monuments. Sail from Montreal, July 5, on the Cunard Line SS. Andania. Everything along the way is arranged with no attention to detail necessary on your part. The assurance of desirable steamer accommodation and choice hotels on the other side—the elimination of the wrangling with taxi-drivers, porters, disappointments and delays are only a few of the advantages enjoyed by taking this most attractive tour, which offers great travel value. A feature is touring Scotland and England by motor coach.
